

Table of Contents

Roman Bartosch

In 'Interesting Times':

Classroom Diversity and the Great Transformation 1

Teaching Transformation: Affect, Agency, Ambiguity, and Scale

Jürgen Wehrmann

Facing the Posthuman Horizon: Global Education and

Teaching Science Fiction in the EFL Classroom 15

Mareike Tödter

The Political in Sustainable Matters: A Case for Controversy

and Plurality in the EFL Classroom 39

Svenja Rosenau

Tolerance of Ambiguity and Sustainability-Related

Competencies in the EFL Classroom 65

Roman Bartosch

Scaling Crises: Theories, Tasks and Topics for

Transformative Sustainability Education in English 77

Reading Transformation: From Early English to Higher Education

Christian Ludwig & Frank Erik Pointner

"Where were you when the sky cracked open?" –

Responses to Hurricane Katrina in Popular Culture 93

Claudia Deetjen

Teaching Young Adult Climate Change Fiction

in the EFL Classroom: Saci Lloyd's The Carbon Diaries 2015/2017 107

Christiane Hansen

Fictions of Disaster: Climate Change and the Imaginary
in a Framework of Transformative Literacy 125

Marta Janachowska-Budych

Education for Sustainable Development
with Texts of Migration Literature:
A Case Study in German-Polish Educational Context 143

Notes on Contributors 159