

CONTENTS

| | |
|---------|-------------------|
| Preface | Page ix |
|---------|-------------------|

PART I

The Parisian Background to Calvin's Thought

| | |
|--|----|
| John Duns Scotus | 3 |
| Abstractive and intuitive knowledge | |
| Being as the prime object of understanding | |
| The knowledge of God: | |
| perfect and imperfect intuition | |
| voluntary and natural object | |
| different levels of knowledge | |
| William of Occam | 12 |
| Abstractive and intuitive knowledge | |
| Signification: | |
| rejection of images in the middle | |
| primary and secondary intention | |
| theological knowledge | |
| Impact on hermeneutics | |
| John Major of Haddington | 23 |
| (1) Notitia | |
| (2) Dialectica | |
| (3) Theologia | |
| (4) Interpretatio | |

PART II

The Shaping of Calvin's Mind

| | Page |
|---|-------------|
| The Early Writings | |
| Calvin's theological and hermeneutical method | 61 |
| Influences at work in Calvin's Thought | |
| (A) Late Mediaeval Thought and Piety | 72 |
| (i) The devotio moderna | |
| (ii) The impact of the Collège de Montaigu | |
| a. scientia practica | |
| b. notitia intuitiva | |
| as knowledge according to nature | |
| as personal knowledge | |
| as auditive knowledge | |
| c. The nature of theological statements | |
| d. The interpretation of Scripture | |
| (B) Sixteenth century thought and scholarship | 96 |
| a. The effect of Calvin's legal and humanist studies | |
| (i) the relation of language to logic | |
| (ii) the relation of language to practical life | |
| (iii) the relation of language to Scripture | |
| b. The impact of the new empiricism | |
| the importance of inventio in scientific inquiry | |
| L. Valla: In dialecticen | |
| R. Agricola: De inventione | |
| c. The impact of classical and biblical studies at | |
| the Collège Royal | |
| The influence of Desiderius Erasmus | |
| (i) The De Clementia | |
| (ii) The De Scandalis | |
| d. Calvin's indebtedness to Martin Luther | |
| Epilogue | 161 |
| Notes | 167 |