

Contents

Preface	ix
Note on References	xvii
Introduction: The Protestant Reformation and the Origins of Modern Politics	I
Part One: Calvin's Practical Teaching: Divine Glory in Human Action
1 The Separation and Union of Religion and Politics	25
2 Providence, Christian Freedom, and Spiritual Government	35
3 Government and the People	62
4 Law and Ethics	82
5 Reason, Rationalism, and History	100
Part Two: Calvin's Antitheology: Transcendence without Another World
6 Justification and Sanctification	123
7 The Soul and the Image of God	141
8 The Center of Calvin's Antitheology	157
Conclusion: Idealism, Materialism, and Legitimacy in the Modern Age	164
Notes	195
Bibliography	212
Index	217