

CONTENTS

| | |
|--|-----|
| Acknowledgements | IX |
| Introduction | XI |
| Part I: The theory of education | |
| 1. A philosophy of education | 3 |
| 2. The institution as educator | 32 |
| 3. The educational institution | 46 |
| 4. The eminence of scholarship | 59 |
| 5. The prevalence of ignorance | 69 |
| 6. The range of learning | 76 |
| Part II: The theory of practice in education | |
| 1. Problems in the philosophy of education | 91 |
| 2. The education of the academic administrator | 97 |
| 3. Falsity in practice | 112 |
| Part III: The uses of university | |
| 1. What happens in college? | 139 |
| 2. The college teacher | 151 |
| 3. Thoughts about teaching | 158 |
| 4. The well-grounded graduate | 163 |
| 5. A slower pace for superior students | 169 |
| 6. Athletic education | 174 |
| Part IV: The advancement of education | |
| 1. Education and the genius | 187 |
| 2. The genius versus the American university | 196 |
| Part V: Education and civilization | |
| 1. The cultural conditioning of education | 205 |
| 2. The future of the past | 213 |
| 3. The hidden philosophy of Americans | 219 |
| 4. Education and Western civilization | 226 |
| 5. Education and the total culture | 231 |
| Notes | 235 |
| Index | 237 |
| A system of philosophy | |