

Contents

Editors' Preface 7

Author's Foreword 9

Introduction 11

PART ONE:

The Changing Context

1. Why Education Is Political 15
2. Expansion and Opportunity, 1944-64 23
3. The Onset of Doubt, 1964-77 39

PART TWO:

Current Conflicts

Introduction to Part Two 51

4. The Struggle over Curriculum and Standards 53
5. Institutionalism Attacked and the Changing Power Structure 68
6. The Teachers Become Militant 78
7. Education Goes to Law 83
8. Curriculum and Authority in Higher Education 92
9. Equality 103
- Postscript to Part Two 110

PART THREE:

The Political System

10. The Political and Governing Institutions 117
 - I. Education and Local Politics 120
 - II. Different Interest Groups 130

III. The Central Authorities 137

IV. Linking Central and Local Government and Schools 152

11. Future Prospects 156

Short Bibliography 163

Index 165