

Contents

Preface xiii

PART I FOUNDATIONS OF SOCIAL LIFE

1 THE SOCIOLOGICAL SCENE 2

Chapter Objectives 2

What is Sociology? 6

Scientific method 6

The study of society 6

The study of institutions and organizations 7

The study of human interaction 10

The Sociological Perspective 12

Patterned social relationships 12

Breadth of interests 12

Concentration on social conditions 13

Sociology and anthropology compared 13

What is Society Like? 14

Unitary models 14

The Marxist conflict model 16

Non-Marxist conflict models 17

Social change: The evolutionary models 17

Symbolic interactionism 19

Sociologists at Work 20

Mirra Komarovsky: Male-female relationships 21

Robert K. Merton: Latent functions 22

Summary 26

Student Study Guide 28

2 THE PURSUIT OF SOCIOLOGICAL KNOWLEDGE 32

Chapter Objectives 32

Barriers to Social Knowledge 33

Traditional barriers 33

Cognitive barriers 34

Emotional barriers and biases 35

Intended deceit 35

Problems of Overcoming the Barriers 37

Scientific Method 38

Observational studies 38

Participant-observer studies 40

Opinion research 41

Questionnaires 42

Interviews 44

Coping with Statistics 45

Sources of statistics 45

Possible misrepresentation 45

Measurement of central tendency 46

Correlation 47

The importance of statistics 49

A statistical study of adolescence 50

Sociological Experiments 52

Controls 54

Ethics in experiments 54

Theories and Research 54

The need for theory 55

Summary 56

Student Study Guide 58

3 CULTURE AND DIVERSITY 62

Chapter Objectives 62

Culture and Human Survival 63

From Adaptation to Limited Control 66

Culture and Geography 66

Cultural Dynamics 67

Migration and Cultural Change 68

Cultural diffusion 69

| | |
|---|-----------|
| Discovery and invention | 70 |
| Catastrophes | 70 |
| Language and Culture | 71 |
| Language and thought | 73 |
| Culture as a Normative System | 75 |
| Norms: Statistical and moral | 76 |
| Norms of protection and reciprocity | 77 |
| Sexual norms | 77 |
| Norms and the spirits | 78 |
| Values | 78 |
| Folkways and mores | 83 |
| Ethnocentrism | 83 |
| Complex Cultures and Subcultures | 84 |
| A religious subculture | 84 |
| An invisible subculture: The migratory poor | 84 |
| An invisible subculture: The gypsies | 86 |
| Summary | 86 |
| Student Study Guide | 88 |
| | |
| 4 SOCIALIZATION: A MUTUAL PROCESS | 92 |
| Chapter Objectives | 92 |
| The Meaning of Socialization | 93 |
| Social origins of individual differences | 94 |
| Views of Socialization | 95 |
| Socialization as repression: Sigmund Freud | 95 |
| The Challenge to Freud: Cooley and Mead | 98 |
| Charles Horton Cooley: The looking-glass self | 98 |
| George Herbert Mead | 101 |
| Jean Piaget | 103 |
| Erik Erikson | 103 |
| Socialization and Role | 106 |
| Role distance | 107 |
| Role strain and role conflict | 107 |
| Reciprocal roles, role taking, and role sets | 108 |
| Roles and sexism | 109 |
| Agencies of socialization | 109 |
| Prolonged adolescence | 110 |
| Adult Socialization | 112 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| Resocialization | 112 |
| Brainwashing | 112 |
| Changing Patterns of Socialization | 114 |
| David Riesman: The other directed personality | 114 |
| Robert J. Lifton: Protean man | 115 |
| Summary | 115 |
| Student Study Guide | 118 |

5 GROUP INTERACTION 122

| | |
|--------------------------------------|------------|
| Chapter Objectives | 122 |
| The Group Defined | 123 |
| Importance of Group Membership | 124 |
| Sociability needs | 124 |
| Belonging and the hold on life | 125 |
| Groups and individual autonomy | 127 |
| Conformity to group opinions | 128 |
| Winning group approval | 129 |
| Primary and Secondary Groups | 130 |
| Moral neutrality of primary groups | 131 |
| Secondary groups | 131 |
| Alienation in the secondary world | 132 |
| Primary groups in secondary settings | 135 |
| Informal structures | 135 |
| Between primary and secondary | 136 |
| Types of secondary groups | 137 |
| Groups and Emotional Involvement | 137 |
| Ingroups and outgroups | 137 |
| Conflict groups | 139 |
| Reference groups | 141 |
| Summary | 141 |
| Student Study Guide | 143 |

PART 2

DIVERSITY AND STRAIN

6 STRATIFICATION, CLASS, AND MOBILITY 148

| | |
|-------------------------------|-----|
| Chapter Objectives | 148 |
| The Meaning of Stratification | 150 |
| Occupational prestige ratings | 151 |
| Community studies | 152 |

- Social Class in National Perspective 154
 - The upper class as a national elite 154
 - The divided middle class 154
 - The working class 156
 - The lower class 157
- Social Class and Caste Compared 157
 - Caste: India and the United States 157
 - Other examples of caste 158
 - The isolation of classes 160
- Origins and Theories of Social Class 160
 - The origins of social class 160
 - Superiority theory 164
 - The Marxist view: Social class as exploitation 164
 - Social class as social function 165
 - The circulation of elites 165
- Social Mobility 166
 - American beliefs regarding mobility 167
 - Upward mobility in America:
 - The reality 167
 - Who are the upwardly mobile? 169
- Questions Regarding Mobility 169
 - How much mobility is needed? 169
 - Is there a permanent underclass? 170
 - Social class and early death 170
 - Is there an entrenched upper class? 170
- Summary 172
- Student Study Guide 174*

7 MINORITIES: RACIAL AND ETHNIC 178

- Chapter Objectives 178
- The Meaning of Race 179
- The Meaning of Ethnicity 180
- Prejudice and Discrimination 180
 - Stereotyping and prejudice 182
 - Interaction and prejudice 183
 - Prejudiced personalities 185
- Economic and Political Explanations of Prejudice 185
 - The split-labor-market theory of racial antagonism 185

- Ethnic groups in the middleman position 189
- Contrasting Attitudes 191
 - Modern attitudes 192
 - The busing issue 192
 - To be or not to be ethnic 193
 - New reasons for ethnicity 194
- Reactions to Discrimination 194
 - Intensification: American Indians 194
 - Threat and intensification:
 - The Japanese 196
 - Chicano identity 196
 - Intensification in the black community 197
- Race and Poverty 201
 - Blaming the victim 201
- Summary 202
- Student Study Guide 205*

8 STRATIFICATION: SEX AND AGE 210

- Chapter Objectives 210
- Stratification of the Sexes through Culture and Socialization 211
 - How culture defines the sexes 212
 - Socialization of the sexes 212
- Women and the Law 213
 - Criminal cases and civil suits 213
 - Rape and battery 214
 - Divorce settlements 215
 - Women, juries, and judges 215
- Cultural Change and Sex Roles 216
 - A functional approach to role inequality 217
 - Women's liberation and cultural change 219
 - Cultural myths: The working wife 221
 - The changing self-image 222
 - Possible effects on the male role 224
- The Feminist Movement and Social Class 225
- The Stratification of Old Age 226
 - Variation in the status of old age 227
 - Old age in industrial society 227

Disengagement theory 228
Retirement 228
Death, the final phase 230
Summary 235
Student Study Guide 238

9 DEVIANT BEHAVIOR 242

Chapter Objectives 242
Defining Deviance 245
Early Explanations of Deviance 246
 Nineteenth-century theories of heredity 246
 Deviance and sociological theory 247
 Poverty and crime 247
 Merton's theory of anomie 248
 The learning of crime: Differential association 253
 Social class and delinquency 253
 The Saints and the Roughnecks 254
 Social class, Saints, and Roughnecks 256
 Labeling theory 256
 Future expectation and delinquency 256
 The professional thief 257
White-Collar Crime 257
 Getting organized 257
 Discrimination in crime 260
 Victimless crimes and the syndicate 261
 New categories 262
 Victims without crime 263
Summary 263
Student Study Guide 266

10 TOTAL INSTITUTIONS 270

Chapter Objectives 270
Theories of Punishment 271
Characteristics of Total Institutions 272
 Inmates and staff 272
 Mortification and will breaking 273
 The privilege system 274
A Simulated Prison 275
 Simulated prison compared with real prison 275
 Prisoners as guards 277
Serving Time 278

Effect of length of sentence 278
The U-curve in rehabilitation expectation 279
Prison Criticism and New Efforts 279
 Prison size and custodial function 279
 The Swedish example 281
 The indeterminate sentence 281
Behavior Modification 282
 Abuses of behavior modification 282
 Aversive therapy 283
 Positive reinforcement 284
Mental Patients and Social Norms 285 Society and the care of mental patients 285
 Mental illness and legal norms 285
 Rationale of incarceration 287
New Directions in Mental Care 289
 Civil commitment 289
Summary 290
Student Study Guide 292

11 COLLECTIVE BEHAVIOR 296

Chapter Objectives 296
 Collective behavior defined 297
How Collective Behavior Originates in Society 297
Forms of Collective Behavior 298
 Mass hysteria 298
 Characteristics of crowd behavior 300
 Crowd contagion 304
 Convergence theory 304
 Emergent norms 304
 Are crowds irrational? 305
Smelser's Theory of Collective Behavior 306
 Structural conduciveness 307
 Structural strain 307
 Generalized beliefs 307
 Precipitating incidents 307
 Mobilization 307
 The problem of social control 307
 Inevitability of riots? 308
 Rumors and collective behavior 308
Fashions and Fads: Commercialism or Collective Behavior? 310

| | |
|------------------------------------|-----|
| Music | 311 |
| Hair | 312 |
| Social Movements | 313 |
| Patterns in major social movements | 313 |
| Equalitarian movements | 315 |
| Radical movements | 315 |
| Movements of world rejection | 315 |
| Revolutionary movements | 316 |
| Summary | 317 |
| Student Study Guide | 319 |

PART 3
SOCIAL INSTITUTIONS AND ORGANIZATIONS

| | |
|---------------------------------------|-----|
| 12 MARRIAGE AND FAMILY | 324 |
| Chapter Objectives | 324 |
| Characteristics of Modern Marriage | 325 |
| Built-in supports for marriage | 326 |
| Built-in problems of marriage | 326 |
| Universality and Diversity in | |
| Family Patterns | 328 |
| The consanguineal family | 328 |
| Polygyny | 330 |
| Polyandry | 330 |
| The minimal family | 330 |
| The denigration of romance | 332 |
| Conclusions about family types | 334 |
| Social Class and Marriage | 334 |
| Social class and divorce rates | 335 |
| Parenthood | 337 |
| Attitudes toward premarital and | |
| extramarital sex | 337 |
| Social Change and Marital Instability | 340 |
| Changes in economic functions | 340 |
| Changes in the socialization function | 341 |
| Other functional changes | 341 |
| Social and geographical mobility | 343 |
| Finding the right partner | 343 |
| Alternatives for the Future | 344 |
| Communes | 344 |
| The swingers | 346 |
| Cohabitation | 346 |
| A word for tradition | 347 |

| | |
|----------------------------|-----|
| The probable future | 348 |
| Summary | 348 |
| Student Study Guide | 350 |

13 THE EDUCATIONAL PROCESS 354

| | |
|---------------------------------------|-----|
| Chapter Objectives | 354 |
| Functions of Public Education | 355 |
| Transmitting the Cultural Tradition | 356 |
| The single-culture tradition | 356 |
| Common language and literature | 357 |
| Local and national traditions | 357 |
| The Equal-Opportunity Function | 358 |
| Findings regarding college entrance | 359 |
| The IQ argument | 359 |
| Motivational factors | 361 |
| Economic costs | 361 |
| Religious background | 361 |
| The Coleman report: Limitations | |
| of schools | 361 |
| Policies and Proposals Regarding | |
| Inequality | 363 |
| Tracking | 363 |
| Special-help programs | 364 |
| Financial help | 365 |
| Busing and equalization | 366 |
| Restructuring the reward system | 366 |
| Unequal education and equal pay: The | |
| Israeli example | 366 |
| Meeting Occupational Requirements | 368 |
| General and specific requirements | 368 |
| The Job Market | 368 |
| A conflict explanation of educational | |
| requirements | 371 |
| Diplomas for the unskilled | 371 |
| Upper-level requirements | 371 |
| Professional efforts | 372 |
| Implications of conflict theory | 373 |
| Latent Functions of Education | 374 |
| The critical function and | |
| student activism | 374 |
| Expansion and Competition | 375 |
| Summary | 376 |
| Student Study Guide | 378 |

14 THE LINK WITH ETERNITY:

RELIGION 382

Chapter Objectives 382

Manifest Functions: Religion as a Unifying
Social Force 383

The sacred and the profane 384

God and society 384

Religion and group feeling 384

The Contradictory Functions of Religion in Modern Societies 386

Unity from diversity 386

Religion as a divisive social force 387

The link with eternity 389

Support for the social order 389

The prophetic function of religion 390

The prophetic function of religion: A response to Karl Marx 391

The psychological functions of religion 391

Latent Functions of Religion 393

Religion and economics 393

Criticism of Weber's thesis 394

A latent function: Prejudiced attitudes? 394

Other latent functions 394

Denominations, Sects, and Cults 395

Sect and society: A debate 397

Social class and religious participation 399

Community orientation and education 399

Conversion to a New Belief 399

The Children of God, Hare Krishna, and the Moonies 400

Trends in Religion 403

Religious diversity 403

Summary 405

Student Study Guide 408

15 POLITICAL POWER 412

Chapter Objectives 412

Political Socialization 413

Political socialization in school 414

Later political socialization 414

The Distribution of Power 417

Sources of Power and Influence 418

Corporate power 418

Labor-Union Power 421

Shortcomings of labor unions 421

The iron law of oligarchy 422

Members' grievances 422

Working-class authoritarianism? 423

Other Countervailing Forces 425

Social movements 425

Associations 426

Government and Bureaucracy 427

Controls and regulations 427

Education and research 428

Military costs 429

Welfare and public services 430

The big-government issue 431

Ambivalent attitudes toward big government 431

Organizations and bureaucracies 432

Bureaucratic structures 433

Political Mood of the Public 435

Summary 438

Student Study Guide 440

16 THE SOCIOLOGY OF WORK AND LEISURE 444

Chapter Objectives 444

Workers' Expectations 445

Unsatisfying jobs 446

Overview of Employment: 1975-1985 446

The aspiration gap 450

Working for the Organization 452

Professionals and bureaucrats 452

Studies of Worker Satisfaction 453

The efficiency engineer 453

The assembly line 454

The human-relations approach 454

Craft, Assembly Line, and Automation 456

Worker integration in the automated plant 458

Industry and worker health 458

Computers and white-collar jobs 460

Displacement and unemployment 460
Segmental unemployment 461
Work-Related Leisure 461
Leisure as work 462
A shift from work to leisure 463
Leisure and subterranean values 463
The Growth of Leisure 466
Summary 466
Student Study Guide 469

PART 4

SOURCES OF CHANGE

17 POPULATION

TRENDS AND

CONSEQUENCES 474

Chapter Objectives 474
Controls on Population 475
The United States, Europe, and the Malthusian principles 476
Demographic Transition 477
Industrialized and developing nations 477
Social and Political Consequences of Population Change 478
Population and military power 478
Population and life-styles 478
Population and national development 479
Population and freedom 480
Population Growth: The Crisis View 481
Resources 481
The malnutrition cycle 483
Population and international ethics 483
Other Perspectives on Population Growth 483
Traditional values 484
Individual versus societal interests 484
Ethnic groups and political power 485
National interests 485
Distribution of income 486
Regional attitudes 486
Population and Policy 487
Birth control without government policy 487
Pronatalist policies 487
Antinatalist persuasion 488
Antinatalist coercive policies 489

Demography of the United States 491
Are figures deceiving? 491
Immigration 491
Age and sex composition 494
Differential birthrate 495
Changes in differential birthrates: Social class 497
Probable results of slower population growth 497
Summary 500
Student Study Guide 502

18 URBANIZATION 506

Chapter Objectives 506
Effects of the Industrial Revolution 508
Patterns of urban growth 510
Urban terminology 512
Limits of growth 513
Metropolitan Problems 514
The Quality of life 514
The housing problem 516
Social-Class Divisions 516
The South Bronx 518
Chicago's East Woodlawn 518
Urbanism and Race Relations 519
Black suburbs? 519
Ecological change 519
A reversal of trends? 520
Government Policies 520
Urban renewal 522
Model cities 522
New towns 524
The Urban Type 524
The antiurban bias 524
New York City and antiurban bias 525
Conflicting studies of the urban personality 525
Urban Plans and Prospects 528
Accommodating the poor 528
Energy and environmental considerations 529
Meeting multiple needs 529
Summary 529
Student Study Guide 532

19 THE INTERDEPENDENT WORLD 536

- Chapter Objectives 536
- Basic Cultural Changes 537
 - Time-consciousness 537
 - Calculability 538
 - Universalistic norms 540
- Changing Socialization 540
 - Role change in the developing world 541
 - Role conflict 541
- Stratification Systems 543
 - Rigidity of stratification systems 543
 - A growing middle class? 545
 - Continuing gulf between rich and poor 545
 - Effect of multinational corporations 545
- The Treatment of Minorities as a World Problem 547
 - Perpetuation of outcaste status 547
 - Apartheid in South Africa 547
 - The female minority 548
- Deviant Behavior 550
- Education for Developing Lands 551
 - The problem of informal education 552
 - Elitist attitudes 552
- Religion in Changing Societies 552
 - Major and minor traditions 553
 - Religion and technological change 553
- Work in the Developing World 553
 - The brain drain 555
- Urbanization in World Perspective 555
 - Shantytowns 556
 - A case study: Mexico City 556
- Conceptualizing the Changes 557
- Summary 558
- Student Study Guide 560*
- Glossary 565
- Bibliography 577
- Indexes 597
 - Name Index
 - Subject Index