

Table of contents

INTRODUCTION
Language, culture and social interaction: An introduction Letizia Caronia	1
PART I Dialogues at home Letizia Caronia	37
CHAPTER 1
Children's socialization to multi-party interactive practices: Who talks to whom about what in family dinners Aliyah Morgenstern, Stéphanie Caët, Camille Debras, Pauline Beaupoil-Hourdel & Marine Le Mené	45
CHAPTER 2
Making unquestionable worlds: Morality building practices in family dinner dialogues Letizia Caronia, Vittoria Colla, & Renata Galatolo	87
CHAPTER 3
Talking to children with atypical development: A study on 'Are you going to' questions Alessandra Fasulo	121
CHAPTER 4
Promoting communication practices about school activities in multilingual families Cecilia Andorno & Silvia Sordella	153
PART II Dialogues at school Letizia Caronia	189
CHAPTER 5
Language, interaction, and culture at school: An overview Letizia Caronia & Nicola Nasi	193

CHAPTER 6
Dialogicity in diapers: Attunement and misattunement at the nursery school	221
Anna Pileri
CHAPTER 7
Challenging the triadic dialogue format: Pupils' interactional work in answering questions in whole-class interactions	257
Piera Margutti
CHAPTER 8
Building bridges: Dialogue and interaction between teachers from divided communities involved in a shared education project	295
Joanne Hughes & Rebecca Loader
CHAPTER 9
Facilitating children's elicitation of interlaced narratives in classroom interactions	317
Claudio Baraldi
CHAPTER 10
Student-teacher e-mail interaction as asynchronous dialogue in an academic setting	351
Sabrina Fusari
Contributors	377
Index	383