

CONTENTS

Foreword MARTIN MEYERSON vii

Editors' Introduction xi

PART I. WHAT IS AMERICAN ABOUT AMERICA?

1 John Dewey and David Riesman: From the Lost Individual to the Lonely Crowd 3

JOSEPH FEATHERSTONE

2 The Sociological Reality of America: An Essay on Mass Culture 41

JOSEPH R. GUSFIELD

3 The Social Basis of Unselfishness 63

CHRISTOPHER JENCKS

4 Abundance Reconsidered 87

ROLF MEYERSON

5 What Tocqueville Feared 105

RICHARD SENNETT

6 Individualism and Equality in the United States 127

NATHAN GLAZER

7 An Unemployed Family 143

THOMAS J. COTLE

8 Development Nineteenth-Century Style: Some Historical Parallels between the United States and Japan 173

HIDETOSHI KATO

PART II.
AMERICAN INSTITUTIONS AND
SUBCULTURES—STILL CHANGING

9 Symbolic Ethnicity: The Future of Ethnic Groups and Cultures in America 193

HERBERT J. GANS

10 A New Marital Form: The Marriage of Uncertain Duration 221

ROBERT S. WEISS

11 American Pastoralism, Suburbia and the Commune Movement: An Exercise in the Microsociology of Knowledge 235

BENNETT M. BERGER

12 Feast of Strangers: Varieties of Sociable Experience in America 251

REUEL DENNEY

13 Aspects of Diversity in American Higher Education 271

MARTIN TROW

14 Journalism and Social Science: Continuities and Discontinuities 291

GERALD GRANT

Epilogue 315

EVERETT C. HUGHES

Bibliography of David Riesman's Publications 319

Contributors 347