

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	Sabrina Ebbersmeyer and Sarah Hutton
Part I Elisabeth's Intellectual World
2	Elisabeth of Bohemia's Aristocratic Upbringing and Education at the Prinsenhof, Rapenburg 4–10, Leiden, c. 1627/8–32	17
	Nadine Akkerman
3	Elisabeth of Bohemia's Lifelong Friendship with Anna Maria van Schurman (1607–1678)	33
	Mirjam de Baar
4	Elisabeth of Bohemia and the Sciences: The Case of Astronomy ...	51
	Sabrina Ebbersmeyer
5	Princess Elisabeth and Anne Conway (1631–1679): The Interconnected Circles of Two Philosophical Women	71
	Sarah Hutton
Part II Elisabeth's Political Thought and Its Context
6	A Persistent Princess: How Elisabeth of Bohemia Constructed Her Personal Politics	89
	Carol Pal
7	Elisabeth and Descartes Read Machiavelli in the Time of Hobbes	109
	Gianni Paganini
8	Princess Elisabeth and the Challenges of Philosophizing	127
	Lisa Shapiro

Part III Elisabeth's Philosophical Thought in Her Exchange with Descartes
9	The Soul's Extension: Elisabeth's Solution to Descartes's Mind-Body Problem 145
	Lilli Alanen
10	Elisabeth on Free Will, Preordination, and Philosophical Doubt 163
	Martina Reuter
11	Is Our Happiness up to Us? Elisabeth of Bohemia on the Limits of Internalism 177
	Dominik Perler
12	The Feminine Body in the Correspondence Between Descartes and Elisabeth 193
	Marie-Frédérique Pellegrin
13	What Is Elisabeth's Cartesianism? 205
	Denis Kambouchner
	Index 215