

CONTENTS

ILLUSTRATIONS	x
ABBREVIATED REFERENCES	xi
INTRODUCTION	xvii
I. King Edward	xvii
II. The Anonymous Work	xviii
III. The Date of the Work	xxix
IV. The Literary Tradition	xxxiii
V. The Author	xliv
VI. The Historical Value of the Work	lix
VII. The Manuscript and its Modern Editors	lxxviii
SIGLA	lxxxii
VITA ÆDWARDI REGIS	1
I. Queen Edith's Family	2
Prologue	2
1. Earl Godwin and Edward Atheling, before 1043	8
2. Godwin's children	22
3. Godwin's disgrace, 1051	28
4. Godwin's return, 1052	38
5. Harold and Tostig, 1053-61	46
6. The court; Welsh and Scottish wars; Westminster and Wilton	60
7. The revolt against Tostig, October 1065-January 1066	74
II. Edward's Religious Life	84
Prologue	84
1. Introduction	90
2. Cure of a scrofulous woman	92
3. Cure of a blind man, 31 October	94
4. Cure of a blind citizen of Lincoln	96
5. Cure of Wulfwig Spillecorn's blindness	96

6. Cure of four blind beggars by a courtier	100
7. Edward's vision of the Seven Sleepers	102
8. Edward's approaching death	110
9. The dedication of Westminster Abbey	110
10. Edward's benefactions to the abbey	112
11. Edward's vision of the Green Tree, death, and burial	114
APPENDICES	128
A. The Textual Relationship between the Anonymous Work, William of Malmesbury's Gesta Regum , and Osbert of Clare's Vita	128
B. Later Interpretations of Edward's Prophecy of the Green Tree	131
C. Goscelin of Saint-Bertin and his Works	133
D. The Development of the Cult of King Edward	150
INDEX	165

ILLUSTRATIONS

Some 'Portraits' of Edward and Harold on Coins	frontispiece
Fig. 1. Edward's Hagiographical Setting	xv
Fig. 2. The Development of Edward's Hagiography	xl
Fig. 3. Manuscript Tradition of the Vita Ædwardi	lxxx