

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: The Realities of Multicultural Societies	1
	Ramona Mielusel and Simona Emilia Pruteanu
	References	13
Part I	Citizenship and Integration: Espousing or Combating Official Political Discourses on Multiculturalism and National Identity	15
2	Nationalistic Secularism and the Critique of Canadian Multiculturalism in Quebec	17
	David Koussens
	Introduction	17
	Conclusion	28
	References	31
3	Francophones, Multiculturalism and Interculturalism in Canada, Quebec and Europe	33
	Patrick Imbert
	Will Kymlicka's Definition of Culture	35
	Kymlicka's Multiculturalism: Views and Inquiry	37
	Multiculturalism and Religion	37

	Tariq Modood and Multiculturalism in the United Kingdom	39
	Christian Joppke's Is Multiculturalism Dead?	40
	Interculturalism in Europe	42
	Interculturalism in Quebec and Canadian Multiculturalism	43
	The Bouchard-Taylor Commission (2008) and Cultural Relations in Quebec in 2019	43
	Doug Saunders and Arrival City	45
	The Desire to Belong?	46
	Conclusion	47
	References	51
4	The Regulation of Migration, Integration, and of Multiculturalism in Twenty-First-Century France	55
	Michael Samers
	Introduction	55
	Theoretical Considerations: The Politics of Migration	57
	Theoretical Considerations: The Politics of 'Integration' and Multiculturalism	59
	Migration Policy and Integration Under Sarkozy and Hollande	61
	Macronisme, Migration, and Integration	67
	Conclusions	70
	References	72
5	Representing French Citizenship and Belonging in La Désintégration (2011) by Philippe Faucon	77
	Ramona Mielusel
	Contextualization of the Malaise in France and the Rise of Youth Radicalization	78
	Disintegration of the French Republican Model in Faucon's La Désintégration	81
	Conclusion	90
	References	95

Part II	How Can One Be Muslim, Immigrant and French? Literary and Cinematic Expressions of Belonging in France and Québec	97
6	Redefining Frenchness: Thomté Ryam's Banlieue Noire and En attendant que le bus explose	99
	Rebecca Blanchard
	Fictional Testimonies, Testimonial Fictions	101
	Narrative Polyphony and Multi-Ethnic Urban Peripheries	106
	References	113
7	The Integration of Muslim Maghrebis into Quebec: France as the Model Not to Follow	115
	Typhaine Leservot
	Introduction	115
	From France's Rejection to Quebec's Seduction	117
	French and Quebec Politics: Similar Debates, Different Answers	119
	Maghrebis of France and Quebec: A Shared Socio-Economic Reality, a Shared Future?	122
	Maghrebi Writers of Quebec: Becoming Quebecers	124
	Conclusion	128
	References	131
8	Feminist Citizenship in the Banlieue: Houda Benyamina's Divines (2016)	135
	Michela Ardizzoni
	References	147
9	"Let me explain: this is who I am": Interview with Anita Aloisio with Introduction by Dervila Cooke	151
	Dervila Cooke
	Introduction	151
	Interview with Anita Aloisio	155
	Conclusion	165
	References	167

Part III	Framing Identity and Nationality: Crimmigration, Islamophobia and the Politics of Ethnic Exclusion	169
10	Shy Elitism: A New Keyword in Critical Multiculturalism Studies	171
	Daniel McNeil
	Introduction	171
	"Gentlemanly Experts in the Business of Fighting Gentleman Bigots": The Early Years of Multiculturalism	175
	"Racists and Liberals Differed Significantly": Frances Henry and a Canadian Race Relations Industry	181
	Multiculturalism Means Business	183
	Conclusion	188
	References	194
11	On the Islamophobic Mind and Its Agenda in France	199
	Abderrahman Beggar
	Islamophobia and the Intellectual Landscape in France	199
	Conceptualization of Islamophobia	201
	The Return of a Concept	202
	Phobia Between Feeling and Fueling the Feeling	204
	Islamophobia and the Perverted Meaning	206
	Islamophobia and Its Agenda	209
	References	214
12	Framing the Immigration Discourse and Drawing the Citizen: Concrete Representations of the "Migration Crisis" in Comics Journalism	217
	Simona Emilia Pruteanu
	Mis-representing Immigrants: What's in a Word?	218
	The Reporter as Author and Witness: Literary Reportage Versus News Coverage	220
	Conclusion	229
	References	232

13	Navigating Diversity: Multiculturalism as a Heuristic	235
	Christopher G. Anderson
	Introduction	235
	The Political Challenges of Cultural Diversity	237
	Multiculturalism and Political Intent in Canada	239
	Multiculturalism as a Heuristic	244
	Multiculturalism and Hope	249
	References	251
	 Index	 255