

Contents

- List of Tables and Figures VII
Notes on Contributors and Editors VIII

- Nationalism and the Postcolonial: An Introduction 1
Sandra Dinter

PART 1

The Languages of Nationalism

- 1 The Nationalist Ideology of Monolingualism in Postcolonial Theory 23
Michael Westphal
- 2 Talking Kenya*n: Dynamic Practices for a Heterogeneous Nation 40
Natascha Bing
- 3 The Hindi Language and the Imagination of the Indian Nation:
Ramchandra Shukla's Construction of Indian Civilization 57
Prachi Gupta

PART 2

The Songs and Sounds of Nationalism

- 4 Singing the Postcolonial Independent in Trinbagonian Calypso 75
Arhea Marshall
- 5 Singing the Nation: The Condition of Englishness in the Lyrics of PJ
Harvey and Kate Tempest 92
Sina Schuhmaier

PART 3Nationalisms in Postcolonial Popular Culture

- 6 Pop Culture: A Vehicle of State Nationalism in India 111
Idreas Khandy
- 7 Meet the 'Holy Family': From Multicultural Australia to Enforced Reconciliation in Baz Luhrmann's Australia (2008) 131
Hanna Teichler
- 8 Intersections of Race, Sexuality, and National Identity in BioWare's Mass Effect 149
Theresa Krampe

PART 4Nationalisms in Postcolonial Literatures

- 9 Blind Spots: Nationalism and the Photographic Gaze in Teju Cole's Every Day Is for the Thief 169
Ralf Haekel
- 10 Emotional Nationalism in the New Nigerian Novel 186
Hannah Pardey
- 11 The British Empire and the 'Laureate of Its Demise': Postimperial Nostalgia in Jane Gardam's Old Filth Trilogy 204
Lukas Lammers
- 12 'Bastardizing' National Belonging: Derek Walcott and Joseph Conrad 223
Kathrin Härtl
- Index 239