

Contents

Preface	ix
A note on Applied Psychology	xiii
Introduction	xxi

Early Essays

The Late Professor Morris	3
The Philosophy of Thomas Hill Green	14
The Lesson of Contemporary French Literature	36
Galton's Statistical Methods	43
Ethics in the University of Michigan	48
A College Course: What Should I Expect from It?	51
On Some Current Conceptions of the Term "Self"	56
Is Logic a Dualistic Science?	75
The Logic of Verification	83
Philosophy in American Universities: The University of Michigan	90
Moral Theory and Practice	93
Poetry and Philosophy	110
The Present Position of Logical Theory	125
How Do Concepts Arise from Percepts?	142
Lectures vs. Recitations: A Symposium	147
The Scholastic and the Speculator	148
Green's Theory of the Moral Motive	155
Two Phases of Renan's Life	174

Book Reviews

The Critical Philosophy of Immanuel Kant by Edward Caird	180
Kant's Critical Philosophy for English Readers by Mahaffy and Bernard	184
A History of Philosophy by J. E. Erdmann	185
Studies in Hegel's Philosophy of Religion by J. MacBride Sterrett	187
Elementary Psychology by J. H. Baker	190
What Is Reality? by Francis Howe Johnson	192
The Story of the Odyssey by the Rev. A. J. Church	193
The Angle of Reflection	195
1 195; 2 198; 3 200; 4
202; 5 206; 6 208
Introduction to Philosophy: Syllabus of Course 5	211

Outlines of a Critical Theory of Ethics

Preface	239
Introduction	241
Part One: Fundamental Ethical Notions	249
1. The Good	249
2. The Idea of Obligation	328
3. The Idea of Freedom	340
Part Two: The Ethical World	345
Part Three: The Moral Life of the Individual	353
1. The Formation and Growth of Ideals	354
2. The Moral Struggle or the Realizing of Ideals	372
3. Realized Morality or the Virtues	382
Conclusion	386

Contents

	vii
List of symbols	xli
Checklist of references	xliii
Textual principles and procedures	l
A note on the texts	lxi
Emendations in the copy-texts	lxxiii
Historical collation of "The Present Position of Logical Theory"	lxxvii
Correction of quotations	lxxxii
Word-division list	xcii
Index	xcv