

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|   |    |
|---|----|
| PREFACE AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.....  | ix |
| I. INTRODUCTION.....  | 1  |
| 1. The Great Famine in Contemporary Irish Culture: Breaking Silencesand Joseph O'Connor's Trilogy as Literary Mission (Im)Possible..... | 1  |
| 2. Joseph O'Connor's Trilogy and Famine Fiction:Overview of Current Research.....   | 5  |
| 3. Desiderata, Central Questions and Aims of the Study .....  | 8  |
| 4. Central Concepts, Methods and Outline of the Study .....   | 10 |
| II. THROUGH THE LENS OF HUNGER:THE GREAT FAMINE AS A CULTURAL NARRATIVE.....  | 13 |
| 1. The Famine Emplotment: An Outline of the Great Hunger Debate.....  | 17 |
| 1.1 Political Implications: The Great Famine and the Debate of Blame .....  | 19 |
| 1.2 Transnational Dimensions:Historical Duty as the Famine Social Debate.....   | 22 |
| 1.3 Inexpressible and Unspeakable but Imaginable?Silence and Crisis of Representationin Cultural Discussions of the Famine.....     | 25 |
| 2. Representations of the Great Famine from Victorian to Postmodern Fiction .....   | 31 |
| III. THEORETICAL AND METHODOLOGICAL FRAMEWORK:APPROACHING NARRATIVE WORLDMAKING INJOSEPH O'CONNOR'S IRISH AMERICAN TRILOGY .....    | 37 |
| 1. Textual Interplay: Intertextuality as the Object and Method of Analysis .....  | 42 |
| 1.1 Intertextual Categories: Individual and System References,Markers and Features .....  | 45 |
| 1.2 "Making Connections": Intertextuality as a Method of Analysis.....  | 48 |
| 2. Picture – Music – Text: Intermedial References.....  | 49 |
| 3. Famine Voices: Perspective Structure and Aspects of Narrative Transmission...  | 51 |
| 4. Writing History, Making Worlds: From the Revisionist Historical Novelto Historiographic Metafiction (and Back) .....                 | 56 |

|     |   |     |
|-----|---|-----|
| IV. | FAMINE WORDS AND FAMINE WORLDS: FACETS OF STARVATION ANDNEGOTIATING THE HISTORY OF THE GREAT HUNGER IN STAR OF THE SEA .....             | 62  |
| 1.  | Dickens, Brontë and the Great Hunger:Challenging the Literary Archive of the Famine.....  | 65  |
| 1.1 | Hero or Fraud? Deconstructing Dickens as a Supreme Victorian Writer...  | 66  |
| 1.2 | Fragment of the Famine: Transtextual Testing of Wuthering Heightsas a Palimpsest of the Great Hunger Literary Archive .....              | 71  |
| 2.  | Pictures of Hunger, Songs of Starvation: Multimedial Explorations ofthe Worldmaking and Mnemonic Capacities of the Great Hunger Narrative ..... | 77  |
| 2.1 | “Apes and Angels”:Negotiating Irish Cultural Identity in 19 th -Century Illustrations .....  | 78  |
| 2.2 | “A Hidden Holy Well”:Mnemonic and Worldmaking Powers of Ballads.....  | 85  |
| 3.  | Walking Ghosts: Investigating the Portrayal of the Faminethrough Wandering Characters .....   | 91  |
| 3.1 | From Ballad-Maker to the “Modern Irish Trickster”:Palimpsestic Worldmaking of Pius Mulvey andthe Construction of the Famine Narrative ..... | 94  |
| 3.2 | From Mary Magdalene to Holy Mary:Call for Revision and Enacting Hope within the Transformationsof Mary Duane .....                          | 101 |
| 4.  | “Farewell to Old Ireland”:Generating Post-Famine Worlds in Historiographic Metafiction.....   | 108 |
| 4.1 | Evil Landlord and Suffering Tenant: Subverting the Blame Discourse ...  | 109 |
| 4.2 | “It can never be written, Mary”:Challenging Famine Silences .....   | 114 |
| 4.3 | “Everything is in the way the material is composed”:Metafictional Deconstruction of the Famine Narrative .....                                  | 117 |
| V.  | NEW HOME, NEW IRISHNESS: TRANSITIONS AND TRANSNATIONALPOLYPHONY OF IRISH AMERICA IN REDEMPTION FALLS .....                               | 121 |
| 1.  | From Erin to Amerikay: The Narrative Compositionand Character Constellation of Redemption Falls .....                                    | 123 |
| 2.  | Famine Family and the Polyphony of Irish America .....  | 125 |
| 2.1 | The Female Face of the Famine:Eliza Duane Mooney as a Fragment of the Great Hunger .....  | 126 |
| 2.2 | The Making of an Irish American Male:Challenging Irish Hero Narratives.....   | 135 |

|       |  |     |
|-------|--|-----|
| 3.    | As Told by a Mute Boy: Breaking Silencesin the Metafictional Life-Writing of Jeddo Mooney .....                      | 148 |
| 4.    | From Irish Ballads to Black American Spirituals:Translating Irishness through Song .....                             | 155 |
| VI.   | CURE FOR THE HUNGRY PAST: REVISION, REVIVALAND STAGING FAMINE ECHOES IN GHOST LIGHT .....                     | 162 |
| 1.    | The Revival Revised: Challenging the Central Figuresof the Gaelic Renaissance as Irish Literary Metanarratives ..... | 165 |
| 2.    | Hearing Molly: Imagination and History Writingin the Revisionist Historical Novel .....                              | 173 |
| 3.    | Acting and Worldmaking: Staging Post-Famine Irishness .....  | 180 |
| 4.    | Famine World(s) of the Trilogy:The Worldmaking Functions of the Hunger Trope .....                                   | 185 |
| VII.  | CONCLUSION .....   | 191 |
| 1.    | The Famine Trilogy: The Great Hunger in Words and Worlds .....   | 191 |
| 2.    | Famine Words: Tropes and Modes of Representing the Great Hunger.....   | 193 |
| 3.    | Famine Worlds: Effects of Negotiating the Great Hunger .....   | 199 |
| 4.    | Why Does Historical Fiction Matter? The Cultural Work of the Trilogyand Trajectories for Future Research .....       | 202 |
| VIII. | BIBLIOGRAPHY .....   | 209 |
| 1.    | Primary Sources .....  | 209 |
| 2.    | Secondary Sources .....  | 211 |
| 3.    | Internet Sources .....   | 226 |
| 4.    | Images .....   | 227 |
| IX.   | APPENDIX: IMAGES .....   | 228 |