

Contents

Acknowledgments	xiii
Abbreviations	xv
Chronology	xvii
Introduction	1
Notes	8
Further reading	9
One
Life and works	10
Are you right with Jesus, John?	10
From absolutism to experimentalism	14
Educator, educated	18
The philosopher of the progressive era	20
The philosopher of democracy at home and abroad	24
Retirement?	27
Reading Dewey and the "lost" book	31
Summary	33
Notes	34
Further reading	37

	Two
	Metaphysics reconstructed	38
	Metaphysics in a moving world	40
	The revolt against dualism	46
	Cultural existence in nature as situated	50
	Mapping our milieu	53
	Experience as cultural inhabitation of nature	60
	Hypostatization: the philosophical fallacy	64
	Critique of Dewey's map: the animal plane	69
	Summary	73
	Notes	74
	Further reading	79
	Three
	Epistemology reconstructed	80
	Dismantling the epistemology industry	82
	The "Oh" of problems, the "Hmm" of inquiries, and the "Good" of judgments	87
	Deerstalker hats and construction hard hats	90
	The mirror of nature	93
	Some truths about the truth I: pragmatism and experimental method	98
	Some truths about the truth II: Dewey's instrumentalism	103
	The ends-means continuum: why warranted assertibility is not truthiness	107
	Dewey on meaning in the context of analytic philosophy	110
	Summary	112
	Notes	113
	Further reading	117
	Four
	Ethics reconstructed	118
	Multidimensional moral experience	119
	Dewey's ethical writings	125
	Facts and values	128
	Moral imagination	130

The starting point and principles	136
In praise of theory	140
The social basis of character	144
Summary	148
Notes	149
Further reading	151

Five

Social-political and educational philosophy reconstructed

152

The democratic ideal	153
The experimental attitude and the democratic ideal	157
Emergent individualism	158
Radicalism for grown-ups	160
Liberalism, old and new	164
Democracy begins in conversation	170
Democratic education vs. industrial education	173
Progressive pedagogy in moral education	181
Summary	185
Notes	186
Further reading	188

Six

Aesthetics and technology reconstructed

189

Consummations	190
Experience in its integrity	196
The work of art and generative form	199
The aesthetics of moral life	203
Qualitative thought	206
Art, science, and instrumentalism	208
Does technology corrupt?	210
Summary	213
Notes	214
Further reading	217

	Seven
	Religious philosophy reconstructed	218
	Doctrinal religion vs. the religious attitude	218
	Democracy as community and communion	224
	Summary	229
	Notes	229
	Further reading	230
	Eight
	Influence and legacy	231
	Environmental pragmatism	233
	Dewey in contemporary social-political philosophy and ethics	236
	Dewey in dialogue	238
	Conclusion	242
	Summary	243
	Notes	243
	Further reading	247
	Glossary	248
	Index	257