

Contents

	Page
Abbreviations	xi
Glossary	xiii
Preface	xv

PART I THE CALIPHATE IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY

1	Introduction	3
	The 'Uthmān dan Fodiye jihād—The search for political entities—The growth of Islam—The scattered jamā'as—The place of the Fulani in the jihād
2	The Establishment of the Sokoto Caliphate	23
	The jihād in Gobir—Katsina, Kano and Daura—The jihād in Zaria—Bornu and the emirates on its western frontiers—The jihād in Gombe, Bauchi and Adamawa—The Gwandu emirates—The structure of the Caliphate: reformist ideas of state; the position and duties of the Caliph; the Caliph and the emirates
3	Expansion and consolidation to c.1880	52
	Rivalries within emirates—The role of the Caliph in settling emirate succession disputes—Undigested conquests—The outer frontiers—Pocket states within the Caliphate
4	The Caliphate: elements of stability and instability, 1880–1900	77
	Gwandu-Sokoto relations—Appointment of Emirs—Visits and tribute from the Emirs—Sokoto arbitration in inter- and intra-emirate disputes—Revolts against the Caliph's authority: the Bukhāri revolt; the revolt of Yūsuf—The Mahdist movement and revolts—The military preoccupation of the emirates

PART II RELATIONS WITH EUROPEANS DURING THE SCRAMBLE ERA

- 5 Era of trade and treaties 1879-1894 117
The genesis of European rivalry on the Niger-Benue Waterways, 1879-84—European treaty relations with the riverain emirates, Gwandu and Sokoto, 1885-94—N.A.C. treaties with Sokoto and Gwandu, 1885—Nupe-N.A.C. relations, 1885-94—The R.N.C. and Lagos Government's relations with Ilorin, 1885-94—Trade and conflict on the Benue, 1884-94—Muri, 1884-93—Adamawa—Sokoto R.N.C. relations, 1890-94—Conclusion
- 6 Encirclement, diplomacy and hostility, 1894-1899 165
Unsettling news, 1894-95—1897, the year of dilemma for the Caliphate: the conquest of Nupe; the fall of Ilorin; Aftermath of the Nupe-Ilorin conquest—The lull before the storm, 1897-99—The expedition of Captain Marius Gabriel Cazemajou, 1898—A British Resident for Sokoto, 1898—R.N.C. relations with the riverain emirates up to 1899: Nupe and Ilorin; Muri and Adamawa; Bauchi and Gombe—The emirates on the northern frontiers and the French, 1899

PART III OVERTHROW OF THE CALIPHATE

- 7 The fall of the southern emirates, Bauchi and Gombe, 1900-1902 213
Changing relations between the Caliphate and the British—Ilorin, Kontagora and Nupe—Adamawa—The invasion of Bauchi and the submission of Gombe—The occupation of Zaria
- 8 The fall of Sokoto 250
Diplomatic relations between Sokoto and Lugard, 1900-02—Prelude to the Kano-Sokoto expedition: Magaji Keffi and the murder of Captain Moloney—The taking of Kano—The British occupation of Sokoto—The submission of Sokoto

9	The final destruction of the Caliphate	288
---	--	-----

The hijra of the Caliph Attahiru—The pursuit of the Caliph by British patrols—The first battle of Burmi—The pursuit of Attahiru resumed—The second battle of Burmi

10	Aftermath, 1903–1906	314
----	----------------------	-----

The Hadejia revolt, 1906—Mahdist resurgence—The Satiru rebellion

Appendices

I	Bornu-British treaty	331
II	Sokoto-British treaty	334
III	Letter from Caliph 'Abd al-Raḥmān to R.N.C. c.1899	335
IV	Translation of Arabic version of Lugard's Proclamation of 1 January 1900	336
V	Letter written by Lugard to the Caliph, 'Abd al-Raḥmān, March 1901	339
VI	Letter from Lugard to the Caliph 'Abd al-Raḥmān, despatched 17 March 1902	341
VII	Letter from the Caliph 'Abd al-Raḥmān to Lugard received about early May 1902	343
VIII	Letter from the Caliph 'Abd al-Raḥmān to Lugard, received 28 May 1902	344

	Notes on Sources	345
--	------------------	-----

	Bibliography	360
--	--------------	-----

	Index	371
--	-------	-----

Maps

1	Ethnographic map of Northern Nigeria	8
2	The Sokoto Caliphate and neighbouring states	39
3	The Sokoto Caliphate: external frontiers	67
4	The Royal Niger Company Nupe-Ilorin campaign: 1879	191
5	The routes of the Kano-Sokoto expedition	278
6	The flight and pursuit of Attahiru I	303

Plates	facing page
1 The treaty between the Caliph 'Ali (Aliyu Baba) of Sokoto and Dr Barth	240
2 Maxim gun in action	241
3 75 mm. gun in action	256
4 Waiting to attack: the British expedition before the walls of Kano, 1903	257
5 View from inside the walls of Kano, 1903	272
6 General Lugard and his staff, 1903	273
7 The submission of chiefs, place unknown, 1903	288
8 Mai Wurno and his Wazir at Mai Wurno in the Sudan, October 1928	289

The author and publishers are grateful to the following for permission to reproduce photographs: plate 1, The Public Record Office, London; plates 2-8, the University of Ibadan Library.