

Contents

	page
List of Abbreviations	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Ibadan History Series – General Editor's Introduction	xi
Introduction	xv
1 Prelude to the Nineteenth Century	1
2 Ibadan Conquests and their Effects	33
3 Founding of the Ekitiparapo, 1878	76
4 The Kiriji War, 1879–1886	102
5 The Ekitiparapo: Organisation for War	132
6 Peace Moves and the 1886 Treaty	152
7 The Last Rumbings of War, 1886–1893	185
8 The Ekitiparapo in the Post-War Years	212
Appendices
I Some Leaders of the Ekitiparapo in the Kiriji War	234
II 1886 Peace Treaty	236
III Enactment for the Abolition of Human Sacrifices in the Ekiti Countries	241
Sources and Select Bibliography	243
Index	263
Maps
1 The Ibadan Empire, 1874	67
2 The Setting of the Kiriji Front	133
3 Routes Taken by the Peace Missions of 1886	183

Contents

	opposite page
Plates
1 Citizens of Abeokuta	26
2 Public reception in a Yoruba palace	27
3 Reception of delegates from the Yoruba interior to the peace negotiations of 1886	170
4 The town of Imesi-Ile	171
5 Chief Ogedemgbe, Commander-in-Chief of the Ekitiparapo forces, and attendants	186
6 The Right Rev. Bishop Charles Phillips with the Rev. E. M. Lijadu and church elders at Ode Ondo, 1901	187