

CONTENTS

Preface, p. ix

Introduction, p. xiii

Illustrations, between pp. xvi and xvii

1. Reception of the first aliens, 1840s-1860s, p. 1
2. The inquiring mind, 1875. p. 2
3. Kabaka Mutesa I, Colonel Gordon and the first Christian missionaries, 1876-7. p. 5
4. The advent of the outside world. p. 8
5. The dilemmas in Buganda, c. 1883. p. 9
6. The affirmation of the Christian martyrs, 1886. p. 11
7. The revolutions in Buganda, 1888. p. 12
8. Kabaka Mwanga appeals to the Imperial British East Africa Company, 1889. p. 24
9. The Company's occupation of Buganda, 1890. p. 25
10. The Protestant victory, 1892. p. 27
11. Company's to Imperial Protectorate, 1894. p. 27
12. Association with early British administrators. p. 30.
13. The 1900 negotiations. p. 32
14. The Uganda Agreement, 1900. p. 37
15. British policy, 1909. p. 41
16. Entrenching the oligarchy, 1912. p. 42
17. The autonomy of Buganda, 1914. p. 45
18. British administrative policy, 1917. p. 49
19. Statement to a visitor, 1919. p. 51
20. The Young Baganda Association, 1919-21. p. 52
21. Animosity towards Asians, 1921. p. 54
22. Kabaka or Provincial Commissioner? p. 56
23. Autobiography of a Muganda chief. p. 57
24. The Butaka lands question, 1921-6. p. 62
25. Kagwa's personal petition, 1926. p. 70
26. East African Federation proposals, 1927. p. 73
27. Proposal for reform of the Lukiko, 1929. p. 82
28. Pro and con, 1930. p. 86

CONTENTS

29. Closer union and other questions, 1931. p. 87
 30. African and Asian education, 1932. p. 99
 31. The impact of Christianity, 1933. p. 101
 32. Attitude to non-Africans, 1934. p. 103
 33. The ideology of Buganda, p. 104
 34. 'Why British administration fails', 1936. p. 108
 35. Mitchell's secret memorandum, 1939. p. 111
 36. Threat to the land, 1944. p. 119
 37. The Residency system, 1944. p. 124
 38. The means to progress, 1945. p. 127
 39. Antipathy to Asians, 1946. p. 131
 40. The East African High Commission and Papers 191 and 210, 1947. p. 134
 41. The cotton grievances, 1948-9. p. 135
 42. The onset of the 1949 disturbances. p. 136
 43. Alienation, 1948-9. p. 141
 44. The 1949 disturbances. p. 143
 45. The troubled 'forties. p. 145
 46. Constitutional reform in Buganda, 1953. p. 157
 47. The deportation of Kabaka Mutesa II, 1953. p. 161
 48. The Namirembe constitutional conference, 1954. p. 175
 49. Proposed constitutional reforms, 1954. p. 178
 50. Manifestoes of the political parties, 1950s. p. 181
 51. Attitude to Asians, 1955. p. 190
 52. Buganda alone. p. 191
 53. Crossing the Rubicon. p. 192
 54. 'Populism' in Buganda. p. 194
 55. Boycott and the Uganda National Movement, 1959. p. 195
 56. The Lukiiko memorandum, 1960. p. 200
 57. Decision to co-operate with Uganda, 1961. p. 210
 58. Politics and the Kabakaship, 1961. p. 211
 59. The stand of Kabaka Yekka. p. 213
 60. Belonging to Uganda, 1963. p. 215
 61. The suspension of the Constitution, 1966. p. 221
 62. Past and future, 1966. p. 225
- Index, p. 229