

Contents

Introduction page [ vii ]

WEST AFRICAN COUNTRIES AND PEOPLES

Preface v

PART I. The Negro's Place in nature

- |   |   |    |
|---|---|----|
| 1 | Description of the Original and Uncivilized State of the Native Tribes    | 3  |
| 2 | The Origin, Dangers, and Progressive Development of the Liberian Republic | 12 |
| 3 | Exposition of Erroneous Views respecting the African                      | 19 |
| 4 | False Theories of Modern Anthropologists                                  | 31 |
| 5 | Some Anatomical Accounts of Negro Physique                                | 40 |
| 6 | The Progressive Advancement of the Negro Race under Civilizing Influence  | 53 |

PART II. African Nationality

- |    |   |     |
|----|---|-----|
| 7  | General Observations : Self-government of the Gambia                      | 65  |
| 8  | Self-government of Sierra Leone : Kingdom of Sierra Leone                 | 81  |
| 9  | Self-government of the Gold Coast   | 96  |
| 10 | Self-government of the Gold Coast : Kingdom of Fantee                     | 113 |
| 11 | Self-government of the Gold Coast : Republic of Accra                     | 124 |
| 12 | Self-government of Lagos and its Interior Countries ; Kingdom of the Akus | 138 |
| 13 | Empire of the Eboes   | 154 |

CONTENTS

PART III. Requirements of the Various Colonies and Settlements
14	Requirements of Sierra Leone	181
15	Requirements of the Gambia	208
16	Requirements of the Gold Coast	219
17	Requirements of Lagos; Some Remarks on the Republic of Liberia	242
18	Concluding Remarks; Advice to the Rising Generation in West Africa.	246
	Index	251
	Portrait of Horton, facing iii. Map, at end.	