

Contents

List of Figures	viii
List of Contributors	xiii
Introduction: Toward a New Understanding of Globalism in Postwar Art	1
FLAVIA FRIGERI AND KRISTIAN HANDBERG
1 Prologue: Art History's Work-in Pro(re)gress – Reflections on the Multiple Modernities Project	12
TERRY SMITH
PART 1
Crossings and Encounters: Retracing Artists' Itineraries	25
2 Expression for All: Ferlov, Mancoba, Tajiri and the Art of Cobra	27
KAREN KURCZYNSKI
3 Origins and Brinks: Multiple Modernisms in Postwar London	43
GIULIA SMITH
4 Multiple Resistances to the Concept of Modernism: The Emergence of Artistic–Poetic Networks between Eastern Europe and Latin America in the Late 1960s and 1970s	57
KATARZYNA CYTLAK
5 Urban Folklore: Marta Minujín's Postwar Assemblage and the Modern City	70
ELIZE MAZADIEGO
6 Yayoi Kusama as a Migrant Artist: An Artistic Trajectory as a Model for Understanding Postwar Art	82
MARIE LAURBERG

vi Contents

7	The Overworked Ground: Franz Erhard Walther in New York STEPHANIE STRAINE	96
PART 2
	Against the Norm: Decentering and Resisting the Canon	111
8	Blinded by Mao: The Challenge of Seeing Modernism in Art of the People's Republic KAREN STOCK	113
9	"Iranian Modernism" and the Idea of Indigenous Art: Translations, Adoptions and (Mis)Interpretations COMBIZ MOUSSAVI-AGHDAM	127
10	Camouflaged Dissent – A Plastic Umbrella and Transparent Balloons: "Happenings" in South Korea, 1967–1968 SOORAN CHOI	138
11	A Postcard from Addis: Ethiopian Modernism(s) in the World KATE COWCHER	149
12	The Cultural Politics of Négritude and the Debates around the Brazilian Participation in the First World Festival of Negro Arts (Dakar, 1966) SABRINA MOURA	164
13	An Index of Modernity: Feminist Furniture by Teresa Burga and Beatriz González SOFIA GOTTI	178
PART 3
	Collecting Modernisms – Exhibiting Modernisms	191
14	Traveler's Tales: Alfred Barr, the Soviet Union and International Modernism in the Postwar Period MASHA CHLENOVA	193
15	Displaying Whose Modernity? The Bardis and the Museum of Art of São Paulo CAMILA MAROJA	208

16	Cosmonaut Paintings as Contemporary Art: The Soviet Union at the Venice Biennale, 1956–1968	220
	KRISTIAN HANDBERG
17	All That Jazz: Rome’s Galleria Nazionale d’Arte Moderna and the Rise of Abstraction in Postwar Italy	232
	FLAVIA FRIGERI
	Index	244