

Contents

Introduction: Reflections on 50 years of ACAL Akinbiyi Akinlabi, Laura J. Downing, James Essegbey, Laura McPherson, Katie Franich, Lee Bickmore, Sharon Rose, Michael Cahill & Michael Diercks	iii
1 Morphologically conditioned phonological variation in Nobiin Maya L. Barzilai & Nubantood Khalil	1
2 Marking grammatical tone in orthographies: Issues and challenges Michael Cahill	23
3 Subordinate clauses in Dadiya: Field research on the use of enclitic -I Stephen Dettweiler	35
4 A note on wh-questions in Avatime Kerri Devlin, Blake Lehman, Travis Major & Harold Torrence	55
5 Clitics or agreement markers: A view from Tigrinya clausal possession and modal necessity Keffyalew Gebregziabher	73
6 Subject encoding in Limbum Johannes Hein	121
7 Differential marking in Kinande Monica Alexandrina Irimia & Patricia Schneider-Zioga	147
8 Gender and headedness in nominal compounds in Somali Nina Hagen Kaldhol	175
9 Artistic adaptation of Seenku tone: Musical surrogates vs. vocal music Laura McPherson & Lucas James	203

10	vP infinitives in Wolof: On \bar{A}-movement to Spec vP
	Elise Newman	225
11	Asymmetries in vowel-pair frequencies and height harmony in Bantu
	Stephen Nichols	245
12	Acoustic correlates to contrastive tone heights in two African languages
	Madeleine Oakley	261
13	A diachronic analysis of the socio-semantic features of Igbo personal names
	Esther Nwakaego Oweleke	283
14	Object marking in Lubukusu: Information structure in the verb phrase
	Justine Sikuku & Michael Diercks	305
15	Documenting praise names ahanonko among Ewes: A socio-semantic perspective
	Doreen Enyonam Esi Yegblemenawo & Stella Afi Makafui Yegblemenawo	331
	Index	349