

Contents

List of Abbreviations	xvii
Introduction	i
Concepts	4
Dichotomies	16
Arguments	30
Durkheim's Style	34
PART ONE: YOUTH: 1858-87
1. Childhood	39
2. The École Normale Supérieure	44
Renouvier and Boutroux	54
Fustel de Coulanges	58
3. The New Science of Sociology	66
Comte, Taine and Renan	67
Durkheim's Scientific Rationalism	72
Theory and Practice	76
Durkheim's 'Social Realism'	79
4. Visit to Germany	86
PART TWO: BORDEAUX: 1887-1902
5. Durkheim at Bordeaux	99
6. The Theory and Practice of Education	109
Moral Education	110
Intellectual Education	119
Educational Psychology: The History of Educational Theories	121
Rousseau's Émile and Durkheim's View of Human Nature	125
Durkheim's Sociology of Education	128

7. Social Solidarity and the Division of Labour	137
Social Solidarity	138
Comte, Spencer and Tönnies	140
Mechanical and Organic Solidarity	147
The Theory of Social Change	167
Abnormal Forms	172
8. The Family and Kinship	179
The History of the Family	182
The Conjugal Family	184
Incest	187
Section Systems	189
9. Suicide	191
The Theme of Social Dissolution	195
The Explanandum	199
Rejected Explanations	203
The Explanation Offered	205
The Nature of the Explanation	213
Diagnosis and Remedy	222
10. The Method and Subject-Matter of Sociology	226
11. The Sociology of Religion – I	237
12. The History of Socialism	245
13. The Sociology of Law and Politics	255
The Evolution of Punishment	257
Domestic and Occupational Ethics	265
Civic Ethics: The State, Democracy and Political Obligation	268
Homicide, Property and Contract	275
14. The History of Sociology	277
Montesquieu	279
Rousseau	282
15. The Année sociologique	289
16. The Reception of Durkheim's Ideas	296
'The Division of Labour'	296
The Debate with Tarde	302
Other Criticisms	313

17. Socialism, the Dreyfus Affair and Secular Education	320
Socialism	320
The Academic and Politics	330
The Dreyfus Affair	332
Durkheim and Solidarism	350
Secular Education	354
PART THREE: PARIS: 1902-17
18. Durkheim at the Sorbonne	363
19. The History of Education in France	379
20. Durkheimian Sociology: Its Context and Relation to Other Disciplines	392
The Context	392
Durkheim's Sociological Imperialism	398
Sociology and Philosophy	406
21. The Sociology of Morality	410
The Conceptual Framework	412
Explanation	421
Evaluation	424
Application to Philosophy	430
22. The Sociology of Knowledge	435
The Claims Advanced	436
Their Empirical Basis and Theoretical Significance	445
23. The Sociology of Religion – II	450
Influences	450
Durkheim's View of Totemism	454
Methodological Assumptions	455
The Explanatory Approach	459
The Central Hypotheses	462
Durkheim's Sociology of Religion	477
24. Pragmatism and Sociology	485

25. Durkheim and His Critics	497
Social Realism	497
Economics and Sociology	499
The Sociology of Morality	500
The Sociology of Religion and Knowledge	506
Anthropological Critics	520
26. Practical Concerns	530
Marriage and Sex	530
Church and State	534
Administrative Syndicalism	536
The Future Organization of Society	538
Revolutionary Syndicalism	542
27. The War	547
Bibliography of Durkheim's Publications	561
Comprehensive Bibliography of Writings on or Directly Relevant to Durkheim	591
Appendices	617
A. Courses of Lectures given by Durkheim at Bordeaux and Paris	617
B. Durkheim as Examiner	621
C. Contributing Editors of the Année sociologique , vols. 1-12	655
Name Index	657
Subject Index	665