

Contents

Introduction to the 2017 Edition by Karma R. Chávez	vii
Foreword by Angela Y. Davis	xii
Acknowledgments	xvi
Introduction: “A Call for Rainbow Warriors”	xvii

PART I: SEEING MORE THAN BLACK AND WHITE

1. A Word About the Great Terminology Question	1
2. Seeing More Than Black and White	4
3. That Old White (Male) Magic	21
4. Whose Chicano History Did You Learn?	31
5. Reinventing “America”: Call for a New National Identity	41
6. Follow Me Home , the Movie That Makes Magic with Pennies	49

PART II: NO HAY FRONTERAS: The Attack On Immigrant Rights

7. Immigrant-Bashing on the Rise 1990–94	56
8. For Whom the Taco Bell Tolls	66
9. It’s a Terrorist War on Immigrants 1995–Present	68

PART III: FIGHTING FOR ECONOMIC AND ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE

10. “Levi’s Button Your Fly—Your Greed Is Showing!”	82
11. Walking with César	91
12. When People of Color Are an Endangered Species	100
13. Weaving a Net That Works	108

PART IV:
RACISM AND THE ATTACK ON MULTICULTURALISM

14. Willie Horton's Gonna Get Your Alma Mater: The War on Multiculturalism	118
15. Campus Racism: Tip of an Iceberg	130
16. Brown David v. White Goliath: Racism at the University of California	142
17. On Time in Mississippi	153

PART V:
WOMAN TALK: No Taco Belles Here

18. In Pursuit of Latina Liberation	163
19. Chingón Politics Die Hard	172
20. Listen Up, Anglo Sisters	182
21. The Third Eye of Cherrie Moraga	190
22. Of Passion and Politics	194

PART VI:
LA LUCHA CONTINUA: Youth In The Lead

23. Whatever Happened to the Chicano Movement?	198
24. To New Mexico with Love	204
25. Be Down with the Brown!	210
26. "They Really Were Willing to Die"	220
27. Raza Protest a Day of Lies and Hate	226
28. "Back in the Early 1990s..."	229
29. ¡Raza Sí! Nationalism ...?	239
30. Remember Something Ancient, Imagine Something New	248
Afterword	253
Index	255