

CONTENTS

Illustrations	ix
Preface	xiii
Introduction	xv
Chapter 1. The Roman Circle: Faber and Scioppius	3
Chapter 2. Philip Rubens and Lipsius	29
Chapter 3. Philip Rubens and His Brother the Painter: The Early Mythologies	55
Chapter 4. The Oratorian and Jesuit Commissions: "Looking back" with the Apostle of Rome and "Looking up" with the Pilgrim to Jerusalem	87
Chapter 5. Coloring and Contemporaries	125
I. The Seventeenth-Century Writers on Rubens's Coloring	127
II. Conclusion	133
Appendix I. Selected writings of Philip Rubens and The Life of Philip Rubens by Jan Brant (translated from Latin into English by George Angell)	149
Introduction: The Writings of Philip Rubens	150

The Texts:

- I. A. 96. Lipsius to Richardotus and Rubenius 155
- I. A. 97. Philip Rubens, A Song of Gratitude, offered upon safely landing, to Justus Lipsius, his teacher and friend 156
- I. A. 105. For the same person's [Lipsius's] Birthday 163
- I. A. 109. Complaint about [his] absence 167
- I. A. 112. On [the text of] Seneca, restored by Lipsius . . . 170
- I. A. 115. A Second Farewell Poem 173
- I. A. 117. Funeral Elegy for Justus Lipsius 175
- I. B. On the Musathena of Puteanus 179
- I. C. Elementa Philosophiae Stoicae Moralis: Poem dedicated to Scioppius by Philip Rubens 180
- I. D. Poem written for Otto van Veen's Amorum
Emblemata, Antwerp, 1608 187
- I. E. 80-87. Poemation to the most illustrious Cardinal
Ascanio Colonna, First of the Roman Nobility . . 188
- I. E. 91. Congratulations to Franciscus Oranus
Upon his being invested with the title and honor of Jurisconsult 196
- I. E. 93-94. Ode of Congratulations to the Noble Guilielmus Richardotus on his being invested with the title and honor of Jurisconsult 199

I. E. 95-96. To the noble Ioannes Baptistus Perezius Baronius Who has been elevated by the title of Jurisconsult Phaeacian [i. e., happy] congratulations	201
I. E. 100-102. Philip Rubens to the Renowned Justus Lipsius, Greetings	203
I. E. 102-103. In Praise of Isca; The Spring at Isca	205
I. E. 103-104. To the Leading Man of Letters	208
I. E. 111-114. To the most illustrious Erycius Puteanus who has been granted Roman Citizenship	210
I. E. 120-121. On the Death of the Most Renowned and Learned Ascanius Persius	213
I. E. 121-122. To Joannes Baptista Baronius	214
I. E. 122-123. On the Tomb of Virgil near Naples	215
I. E. 123. On Seeing the Homeland of Propertius	216
I. E. 124. On Riding Up to the Rubicon	217
I. E. 133-142. The Life of Philip Rubens by Jan Brant	218
Appendix II. The three phases of coloring in Rubens's painting of the Italian period	229
The Paintings	230
Index	251