

CONTENTS

EDITORIAL COMMITTEE	v
EDITOR'S INTRODUCTION	1
1. Biographical Background	2
Precollegiate Period, 3; Collegiate and Graduate Studies, 7; From New York to Northampton, 27; Northampton to Princeton, 34.
2. Edwards as a Scientist	37
3. The Development of Edwards' Philosophical Thought	52
The Refutation of Materialism, 53; The Necessity of Being, 68; The Structure of Being, 75; The World in Space and Time, 94; The Mind, 111.
4. Preparation and Editing of the Texts	136
5. Acknowledgments	141
Part I: The "Spider" Papers	145
Note on the "Spider" Papers	147
"Of Insects"	154
The "Spider" Letter	163
Part II: "Natural Philosophy" and Related Papers	171
Note on "Natural Philosophy"	173
"Natural Philosophy"	192
Cover-Leaf Memoranda	192
"Of the Prejudices of Imagination"	196
"Of Being"	202
["Of Atoms"]	208
"Things to be Considered an[d] Written fully about"	219
Note on Papers on Nature and Natural Phenomena	296
"Of the Rainbow"	298
["Of Light Rays"]	302
"Beauty of the World"	305
"Wisdom in the Contrivance of the World"	307
Part III: "The Mind" and Related Papers	311
Note on "The Mind"	313

“The Mind”	332
Note on Short Philosophical Papers	394
Outline of “A Rational Account”	396
[“Notes on Knowledge and Existence”]	398
APPENDIX A: “THE SOUL”	401
Note on “The Soul”	401
[“The Soul”]	405
APPENDIX B: THE “SPIDER” LETTER-DRAFT	407
Note on the “Spider” Letter-Draft	407
“Spider” Letter of October 31, 1723—Draft	409
INDEX	417