

CONTENTS

EDITORIAL COMMITTEE	v
LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS	ix
NOTE TO THE READER	xi
Sermons and Discourses, 1723–1729
Preface to the Period	3
Quaestio: Peccator Non Iustificatur Coram Deo Nisi Per Iustitiam Christi Fide Apprehensam (A Sinner Is Not Justified in the Sight of God Except Through the Righteousness of Christ Obtained by Faith)	47
A Spiritual Understanding of Divine Things Denied to the Unregenerate	67
The Pleasantness of Religion	97
Living Peaceably One With Another	116
Nothing Upon Earth Can Represent the Glories of Heaven	134
All God’s Methods Are Most Reasonable	161
Warnings of Future Punishment Don’t Seem Real to the Wicked	198
Impending Judgments Averted Only by Reformation	213
True Nobleness of Mind	228
Profitable Hearers of the Word	243
The Spiritual Blessings of the Gospel Represented by a Feast	278
The Torments of Hell Are Exceeding Great	297
None Are Saved by Their Own Righteousness	329
Living Unconverted Under an Eminent Means of Grace	357
The Threefold Work of the Holy Ghost	371
The Sacrifice of Christ Acceptable	437
Glorying in the Savior	458
God’s All-Sufficiency for the Supply of Our Wants	471
Sin and Wickedness Bring Calamity and Misery on a People	484
The Day of Judgment	506

APPENDIX: DATED BATCHES OF SERMONS	543
GENERAL INDEX	551
INDEX OF BIBLICAL PASSAGES	567