

Contents

Teaching the Holocaust by Inquiry Beth Krasemann	1
Foreword	2
Acknowledgements	7
Why Teaching the Holocaust Matters Today More Than Ever	9
Holocaust Study Through Inquiry	13
The long history of Anti-Judaism and Antisemitism	21
The breakdown of the Weimar Republic	41
1933: How did Germany transform from a democracy to a dictatorship?	77
How were the Jews isolated in 1930s Germany?	101
Law for the Protection of German Blood and German Honor [Nuremberg Laws] of 15 September 1935	111
Human Behavior and Conformity	115
What Does the Euthanasia Program Reveal about Hitler's Nazi Regime?	129
How did Hitler use the Olympic Games for his Propaganda Purposes?	159
Why did the Jews stay in Germany in the 1930s?	179
Kristallnacht: In what ways did Kristallnacht represent a Turning Point?	201

Contents

Why Were the Jews Forced into Ghettos in Eastern Europe, While There Were None in Western Europe?	221
The Jewish Councils and Mordecai Chaim Rumkowski: collaborator, traitor, or hero?	243
Ghetto Culture: Concerts in the Midst of Suffering – Disrespectful or Vital?	263
Nazi “Fake News” and Terezín: What was it really like in the Ghetto?	275
How did the Jews and other victims resist in the death camps?	293
Human Dignity and Moral Dilemmas: What ‘Choiceless Choices’ did the Victims Face?	321
What motivated non-victims to help and rescue victims?	341
The Einsatzgruppen: Guided by peer pressure, blind obedience, or utmost belief in the cause?	363
A Mosaic of Victims: Who were Hitler’s other victims?	377
To what extent are the employees of the Deutsche Reichsbahn morally responsible for the extermination of the Jews?	385
How did Rudolf Höss see his role in the Holocaust and how is this possible?	395
What does it mean to ‘return to life’ after such tragedy?	407
Memorial and museums: how do we remember the Holocaust? Is there a ‘right way’?	421
Should human hair from victims be put on display in Holocaust museums?	427
Bibliography	439