

Table of Contents

Introduction .....	9
1. One of Kim In-woo's Ships Drifts Ashore in Hamada.....	12
2. Pioneers to Ulleungdo (Takeshima): Matazai and Ōya Jinkichi.....	16
3. Ulleungdo and Takeshima.....	21
4. The Ōya and Murakawa Families.....	26
5. Oki and Takeshima.....	32
6. The Genroku Takeshima Incident and the Governor of Iwami Ginzan .....	39
7. The Korean Goodwill Missions and the Takeshima Issue .....	45
8. The Japanese Sea Lion and Takeshima .....	51
9. After the Travel Prohibition .....	56
10. Matsushima Becomes Liancourt (Lianco) Island .....	63
11. The Tenpō Takeshima Incident and Hachiemon.....	69

12. Matsuura Takeshirō .....	74
13. The Japanese Who Crossed over to Ulleungdo in the Early Meiji Period .....	77
14. The Grand Council of State's Directive in 1877 .....	81
15. About The Chronology of Korea by Mori Junzaburō .....	89
16. The Russo-Japanese War and Takeshima.....	93
17. The Korean Teacher An Yeongjung in Matsue City in 1905 .....	98
18. Nakai Yōzaburō.....	103
19. Uldo Magistrate Shim Heung-tack and the Shimane Prefecture Inspection Team .....	108
20. The Takeshima Fishing and Hunting Limited Partnership Company .....	113
21. Stories from Friends of Ulleungdo News (I): Ulleungdo in 1904 and 1905.....	119
22. Stories from Friends of Ulleungdo News (II): Life in the Taishō and Shōwa Periods.....	123
23. Stories from Friends of Ulleungdo News (III): Interactions with Koreans .....	128
24. Ulleungdo Is a Treasure Island: A Letter from Father to Son .....	132
25. The Pacific War .....	136
26. The Treaty of San Francisco .....	141
27. The Syngman Rhee Line .....	146

28. The Asanagimaru and the Ōtorimaru .....	150
29. Solitary Takeshima: From the Syngman Rhee Line to a Provisional Zone .....	157
30. Takeshima as Japanese Territory .....	160
Afterword.....	163
Supplementary Figures.....	165
Chronology.....	172
References .....	183