

Contents

Preface vii

1. Focus on Fiction 1
2. Fictional versus Historical Lives:
Borderlines and Borderline Cases 18
3. Freud's Case Histories and the Question of Fictionality 38
4. Proust's Generic Ambiguity 58
5. Breaking the Code of Fictional Biography:
Wolfgang Hildesheimer's Marbot 79
6. "I Doze and Wake":
The Deviance of Simultaneous Narration 96
7. Signposts of Fictionality:
A Narratological Perspective 109
8. The "Second Author" of Death in Venice 132
9. Pierre and Napoleon at Borodinó:
Reflections on the Historical Novel 150
10. Optics and Power in the Novel 163

References 181

Index 193