

The Table.

A  A Was the. xij. kyng  of the Argiues 166.  Abstinence the Ita-  talians vse for all  diseases 278.  Achilles. 39.  Academia, a place full of gro-  ues. 158.  Acrisus had a daughter cal-  led Danae. 166.  Academiques. 237.  Arium the paeke of the costi-  tree of Epirus. 249.  Arcans escaped the daungier  of a iudgemente. 321.  Arcio or pronouciacio is the  chiefest poit in eloquence: 344.  Adas, quene of the Cariās. 184.  Adriast, reade the note. 330.  Aschines. 21. 66.  Aesculapius. 30.  Agina the citee. 58.  Aged menne, whereof thei  could smelle. 28.  Agarho of Athenes. 29.  Agesilaus. 96.  Agamēnō kyng of Mycena. 218.  Agrippa made many newe cō-  duites in Roome. 258.  Aide after the felde is fough-  ten, cometh to late. 116.  Alcibiades of Athenes. 12.  All maner of ozacions will  not serue for all persones. 26.  Alexander talked with Dio-  genes sittynge in his tubbe. 83.  Alexander had Diogenes in  high estimacion. ibi.  Alexander thonght it a grea-  ter thyng to see Alexander  then to see a kyng. ibi.  All vertues consist in the	meane betwene two vices. 89  Alipre, what thei wer. 121.  Almoste geuen to beggers ra-  ther the to Philosophers. 128.  Alexanders ambicio. 179. 181. 205.  Alexander his haughtnesse of  courage. 181.  Alexander was swift and  nymble, ibi.  Alexander his armye against  Darius. 183.  Alexander his cookes. 185.  Alexander his answer made  to Darius. 186.  Alexander wounded with an  arowe. 188.  Alexander enforced no person  freborne. 190.  Alexander, howe he used the  Greekes whiche toke wages  of his enemies to fight aga-  inst hym. ibi.  Alexander howe he used a cap-  taine that submitted hymself  vnto hym. 193.  Alexander contemned Heracu-  les in respect of hymselfe. ibi.  Alexander euer refered one  eare for the defendannt. 202.  Alexander reprinted Darius  for the gorgeous deckynge  of his house. 204.  Alexander abhorred effemi-  nate delices. ibi.  Alexanders animositee. 205.  Alexander, what verse he a-  lowed best of Homere. 206.  Alexander was saluted the  sonne of Jupiter Ammō. 207.  Alexander takē by daie with  a dead slepe in the cape. 208.  Alexander made fre of Corin-  tho. ibi.
--	---

The Table.

Alexander knowelaged hym self a mortall manne. 209.	Antigonus his boldnesse & presumption. 219.
Alcyoneus the sonne of An- tigonus slain in battail. 214.	Antigonus was tendre to warde his souldyours. 220.
Alexanders courage and sto- make. 230.	Antigonus lowe of stature & hauyng a flat nose. 222.
Alcibiades accused of one Thessalus. 340.	Antigonus iested at the impe- dimēt of his own yies. 223. 224.
Ambicion of Diogenes. 73. 99.	Antonius & Dolabella fatte and well coloured. 270.
Amphictionum concilium , what it is. 105.	Antipater overcame the A- theniens. 298.
Amphoterus. 164.	Ἄροφος a rocke i the Indies. 193.
Ammon was Jupiter. 188.	Appollo dozus the poete how he visited Socrates. 21.
Amicus alter ipse. 207.	Appoyning of good fare & to be offēded with the cost. 57.
Ambicion of Julius Caesar. 266. 267.	Appellacion of a manne is a firse name but for a fewē. 98.
Antisthenes the philosophier. 15	Apparell to curyous, argueth wantonnesse. 108.
ἀνδρεία, Manhood. 29.	Apollo other wyse called Πυ- thius. 184.
Antisthenes would haue no scholars. 69.	Apelles. 197.
Anaximenes the successor of Anaximander. 131.	Arte of gouernyng a commē- weale. 5.
Antisthenes was lothe to dye 156.	Arrogancie of Sophistes. 16.
Antipater high capitain vn- der Philippus. 175.	Archelaus kyng of Macedo- donie. 18.
Antipater highly in fauoure with Alexander, but at the last dedly hated. 187.	Arte and profession of Phi- siognomyers. 32.
Antipater his ambicion. 189.	Aristippus taught philosophie for money. 33.
Antigenes. 190.	Archelaus the sonne of Per- dicca. 40.
Antipater surmised matiers against Olympias. 205.	Aristippus brauled & stroue with Diogenes. 41.
Antigonus saynges begyn. 210.	Aristippus one of the courte with Dionysius. ibi.
Antigonus how he vsed cer- tain of his souldyours. 211.	Aristippus despised golde & siluer. 43. 57.
Antigonus first cruell & then meosifull. ibi.	Aristippus was bothe galasite
Antigonus disappointed his soonne of his lodgeryng. ibi.

The Table.

and also sage.	43.	rychesse.	ibi.
Aristippus regarded honeste at all tymes.	ibi.	Aristippus byd let his sonne conne at rouers.	64.
Aristippus feared no mā.	44. 63.	Aristip. beyng thelder manns submitted first to Aeschines.	67
Aristippus loued gaye appa= rell.	ibi.	Aristippus cast on lande by shipwacke,	ibi.
Aristippus waxed pale.	48.	Aristogiton.	115.
Arcta the doughter of Ari= stippus.	50.	Arte, euerye arte is not mete foz a kyng.	178.
Aristippus tooke money of his frendes & why.	51. 54.	Aristotle was maister to Ale= xander.	200.
Aristippus spent not his mo= ney in vain.	54.	Aristodemus.	215.
Aristippus kept compaignie with a struompet.	ibi.	Arus a philosophier of Ale= xandria.	226.
Aristippus was a customer of Lais the harlotte.	55.	Armenia a royalmē in Asia.	230
Aristippus spetted on the face of Simus.	56.	Aristogiton a false accusat condemned.	293.
Aristippus wysshed to dye no woozle then Socrates had dooen.	ibi.	Areopagus.	317.
Aristippus cast his money into the sees.	57.	Archias first a plaier of en= treuides and afterwarde a great manne of powder with Antipater.	341.
Aristippus beeyng ohiddē of Plato, what he answered.	58.	ἀσράγαλος.	156.
Aristippus rebuked Dioge= nes foz compaignyng with Whyrne the horlotte.	59.	A true frēde is an high trea= sure.	6.
Aristippus a manne of greate possessions.	60.	Athenes was ruled by the commons.	39.
Aristippus was nothyng gre= ued to take a blāke in dispu= tacion.	61.	Athenens the greke histozi= ographier.	60. 199.
Aristippus refused not to drūce in purple.	62.	A thyng publique is ordery= ned foz the welth of the pri= uate also.	69.
Aristippus had a passyng rea= die witte.	63.	Athlete, what they be that are so called.	103.
Artaphernes.	ibi.	Athenes the fundament of all Grece.	219.
Aristippus arested in Asia by Artaphernes.	63.	Athenodoxus.	228.
Aristo the Philosophier.	64.	Atedius pollio, alias Medius pollio.	269.
Aristippus gathered muthe		Attica a countree.	297.
		Aulus Silius.	25.

The Table.

Augustus reprobated the insa- urable ambicio of Alexander. 229	Beneficiall to a whole multi- tude. 4.
August <sup>o</sup> Caesar made a lawe foz adulterers. ibi.	Better of byrth þ a childe is, the better ought his byrnyng- yng by to bee 9.
August <sup>o</sup> enterpzyted the doo- ynges of mēne to the better parte. 232.	Betwene a beaste and a man of byrth the condicions, there is no difference 11.
Augustus Aiaz. 233.	Better to dye an innocent, thē an offender. 22
Augustus was not desirous to be feared. ibi.	Beautie of the mynde is to be loued. 32
Augustus aunſwer to a feloe thst asked a pēciō of hym. 234.	Begoonne wel, is halfe done. 32
Augustus aunſwer to Walla. 235.	Better to begge then to bee without learnyng. 46
Augustus pdoned Cinna. 238.	Better þ money be cast awaye then māne foꝝ money's sake. 58
August <sup>o</sup> vsed to saie naye to none that desired him to any feaste. 239.	Beetes is an herbe called in latin Beta. 106.
Augustus an high and migh- tie prince. 240.	Beaste of many heddes is the people. 109. 338.
August <sup>o</sup> delited to leste & also would take iestyng. 243. 244.	Beastes þ are most harmful. 118.
Augustus bought diuerse bit- des. 250.	Bealyes of gluttons. &c. 119.
Augustus gētleneſſe in hear- yng complayntes. 250.	Best tyme to wedde a wife. 124
Augustus howe he serued a Greke poete. 251.	Beautyfull strumpettes are lyke to dedly poyson. 137.
Augustus, what he saied of iRoome. 255.	Beneuolence how it should be purchased. 179.
Augustus put of two ympu- dent crauers. 256.	Beardes are an hinderaunce in battaill. 185.
August <sup>o</sup> preferred the digni- te of a comenweale. 257.	Bedde of a persone that is in det. &c. 242.
Augu. how he vsed to comēd his sonne vnto the people. 260.	Bias receined a talent of An- tigonus. 223.
Autozitee, who so hath not saide, sekerth: who so hath proued, hateth. 290.	Biddelles what their officies is. 240.
Aurū sitisti, Aurū bibe. 327	Blisse of heauen, wherby it is obteyned. 96.
B	Blushing is a tokē of vertue. 125
B Attail betwene Alexan- der and Darius. 186.	Bondseruaunte to the plea- sures of the bodye. 4.
	Boldnesse and trust on a man- nes

The Table.

nes well dooyng.	26.	242. 269. 331.
Bostryng of a mannes selfe is a foolyshe thyng.	53	Caprae an Isle. 262.
Booke of drynkyng is vayne. ibi		Caesar haged by þ pirates. 263
Bondeseruauntes of glorie. 102.		Caesars excuse for not leuyng the didatourship. 272.
Bondeseruauntes, howe thei are called in Greke. 148.		Capitaines many, & good soules dyoures but a fewe. 298.
Bountie of Alexander. 184. 195.		Cato. 304.
Bountie and largesse is befall- yng for kynges. 215		Caius Popilius. 308.
Bosome sermons & oraciōs. 216.		Caesar wente in his goune wantonly girt about hym. 313.
Breach of lene betwene Aef- shines and Aristippus. 66.		Caninius Reuilus was consul but. vii. houres. 315.
Brasidas a Capitaine of the Lacedemonians. 232.		Cato would be busily occupied in the daye tyme and mery in the night. 331.
Bundisium a toune in the kyngdome of Naples. 268.		Caelius had a loude voice. 331.
Burtus and Cassius slewe Ju- lius Caesar. 270.		Ceramicus a place of buiriall in Athenes. 87.
Buriyng of Diogenes. 82.		Centauris what they wer. 118.
Buriyng of the Jewes. ibi.		Censour a magistrate in Rome. 247. 284.
Buriyng is not to be cared for (saied Diogenes.) 36.		Centumviri, what thei wer. 312
Bucephalus an horse. 200. 276.		Chefest þtue of younge men. 55
Bulyxis a kyng of Egypte. 326.		Children, what thei get by go- yng to schoole. 50.
Byzaciū a citie of Thracia. 294		Children, howe thei should be brought vp. 75.
C		Childrens byete assigned by Diogenes. 80.
Calamities vniuersall. 37.		Chillades of Erasmus. 91.
Carcharis a lytle bermyn. 103		Cherronea a region nigh to Hellepontus. 102. 163.
Callisthenes the disciple of Aristotle. 107		Charibdis and Scylla. 119. 321.
Caiges for woomenne. 120.		Cherilus a poete. 194.
Caria a prouynce in Asia. 185.		Children begotten towarde the sonne risyng. &c. 309
Callisthenes contemned the facions of Alexander his courte. 202.		Cyniques secte and what thei wer. 68.
Casht, deske oz kandysh of Darius. 204.		Citee is there none without a lawe. 153.
Cassius Seneus. 235.		Cinilitie of Whylippus. 163.
Cares of a good prince. 242.		Cinna sought to despoile Au- gustus.

The Table.

gatus.	238.	Compaignye of wyse manne.	19
CINICA CORONA what it is.	255	Couetousnesse ofte tyme be- guileth the bellye.	56.
Cilicians the people of Cili- cia.	263.	Cōmunicacyon ought to bee fruitefull.	72.
Cicero was lowely to his ene- mies, but to his frendes fro- warde.	289.	Coueteous persones doo most of all crye out on auarice.	77.
Cicero, what it is.	304.	Cōmodytees of philosophy.	83.
Cicero made a Halle free si- tezen.	313.	Cozinthus a citee in Achaia.	84. 341.
Cicero, howe he rebuked his doughter for goyng to faste & his sōne for goyng to slowe.	314	Comunicacion ought not to bee vaine.	72.
Cicero his answer for Milo.	318	Coueteousnesse the roote of al euill.	117.
Cicero diuorced his wife Te- rencia.	319.	Cozrupte and effemynate ma- nners of the Atheniens.	134.
Cicero mocked Curio.	320.	Cōmmuniasion declareth a mannes mynde.	145.
Cicero his riedle.	323.	Cookes of Alexander.	185.
Cicero coulde cast a miste ouer the seates of iudgemente.	325.	Continencie of chastitee of Alexander.	189. 197.
Cicers what thei are.	327.	Corduba a citee in Spaine.	260.
Cicero howe he checked a young feloe.	328.	Consuls of Roome.	273.
Cicero dronke water.	330.	Considius a Senatour.	276.
Cicero what he saied to Ju- lius Caesar.	331.	Constancie of Phocion.	297.
Cicero defeacted the accusa- cion of Marcus Callidius.	332.	Cocce of Cocus.	318.
Cicero iestyng on Isauricus.	332	Contēcion betwene Pythias and Demosthenes.	339.
Cloystures wer full of pride.	23	Critias and Charicles, what thei were.	10.
Climats is a region of colde of a countree.	216.	Credence is not to bee geneu to the ignozant.	20.
Clemēcie of Augustus.	226. 231. 256. 258. 260.	Crabbed wyues compared to rough hoyses.	25.
Clemencie of Pompeius.	284.	Craneum, what it is.	93.
Clamorous and ballyng oras- tours.	306.	Crete the Isle nowe called Candie.	97.
Clodius a Romaine of noble birth.	318.	Craterus desired Diogenes to dwelle with hym.	131.
Cneus Pompeius.	279.	Craterus auunced by Ale- xander.	194.
Cozrupt manners of the Athe- uens.	15.	Cruelnesse of Widius.	259.
		Crassus could curry fauour.	326.
		Customs

The Table.

Customs ease the tedious- ness of incommodities. 24.	favours to Philippus kyng of Macedonie. 335.
Customs in diuerse places, what they are. 34.	Demoisthenes mocked for fly- yng from barrail. ibi.
Curti <sup>o</sup> a knight of Roome. 245.	Demoisthenes escaped beyng in the handes of Alexander. 336.
Cyzicus or Cyzicum an Isle in Propontis. 61.	Demoisthenes, why he was ban- nyshed. 337.
Cypress trees are elsyhe and froward to spryng. 296.	Demoisthenes, what he saied to Pallas. 338.
D.	Demoisthenes auouched it a daungerous thyng to medle with the affaires of a com- men weale. 339.
Dause the daughter of A- crisius 166.	Demoisthenes resozed from banishment. ibi.
Dari <sup>o</sup> his offre to Alexander. 185	Demoisthenes compared his returnyng with the retur- nyng of Alcibiades. 340.
Damasipp <sup>o</sup> praised his wyne of xi. yeres olde. 323.	Demoist. sauted Demades. 342.
Deleales of late baquettyng. 8.	Demoisthenes would not bee at the becke of the people. 342
Death is comē to al psones. 21.	Demoisthenes, howe he de- fended the cause of a pooze wooman. 343.
Death is like to a sound slepe. 36.	Demades was couetous of money. 344.
Desperate psones what they shold dose. 72.	Diete temperate to bee vsed. 3.
Demoisthenes his tale of an affe. 75.	Difference betwene a carnall louer and a frende. 52.
Death is no euill thyng. 150.	Difference betwene the lear- ned and vnlearned. 45. 53.
Death riddeth a bodie out of paines. 156.	Differēce betwene the solle of a philosophier & of a verlet. 48.
Demaratus a Corinthian. 177.	Dionys <sup>o</sup> offēded with Plato. 61
Demochares a Carthesiastes. 179	Dionysius had his eares in his feete. 62.
Delphos a toune in the regiō of Phocis. 101.	Dionysius gaue in reward to Aristippus money, and 20 Plato bookes. 65.
Demetrius the sonne of An- tigonus. 217.	Dionys <sup>o</sup> would call Aristip- pus foole & all to naught. ibi.
Death whiche is beste. 270.	Diogenes was Antisthenes his Demoisthenes spake to please menne. 293.
Demades had no feloe in ma- kyng of an oracion. 299.
Demoisthenes what he was. 333.
Demoisthenes his answer to Pythias. ibi.
Demoisthenes his excuse for the studie of eloquence. 334.
Demoisthe. one of the .x. whom the Atheniens sent ambas-

The Table.

his scholare	65.	thanke woꝛthie foꝛ chaꝛyng
Diogen his zele to sapiēce.	69.	to a feast oꝛ a supper whē he
Diogenes dwelt in a tubbe.	ibi.	was desyꝛed.	85.
Diogenes had no house of his		Diogenes fyndyng Demosthe-
owne.	ibi.	nes in a tauerne.	86.
Diogenes confuted Zeno.	94.	Diogenes howe he poynted
Diogenes nicknamed the scho-		out Demosthenes.	86.
les of Euclides.	70.	Diogenes his aũfwer to suche
Diogenes gaue hym selfe to		as saied he was ouer earnest
lyue after philosophie.	ibi.	in philosophie.	87.
Diog. was a veraye flonen.	73.	Diogenes to whom he would
Diogenes noted Plato of ver-		be folde.	89.
boũtee.	74.	Diogenes rebuked a wooman
Diogenes coulde fynde no		foꝛ liyng prostrate befoꝛe the good menne.	ibi.	Goddes.	91.
Diogenes willed the people		Diogenes cōsecrated to Aescu-
to heare no vayne thynges.	75.	lapi <sup>9</sup> a gyaũt with a clubbe.	ibi.
Diogenes taunted all men.	76.	Diogenes, howe he matched,
Diogenes reponed the Mus-		foꝛtune, law & affectiōs.	91. 95.
icians.	ibi.	Dioge. sityng in his tubbe.	95.
Diogenes reponyng the Oza-		Diogenes auouched himself
toꝛs, couetous persons and		to be rysher then Alexander.	94.
commen people.	77.	Diogenes what he saied espi-
Diogenes rebukyng suche as		yng a whyte leafe of pay.	ibi.
as did sacrifice foꝛ bodelye		Diogenes confuted Zeno.	ibi.
health.	ibi.	Diogenes mocked a Sophiste &
Diogenes hated gluttons and		one prayng in Astronomie.	95.
boundseruautes.	ibi.	Diogenes anoynted his feete
Diogenes praisyng diuerse		where others annoynce their persones.	78.	heddes.	96.
Diogenes, what he taught to		Diogenes was desyꝛed to bee
Xeniades his sonnes.	79.	a preaste.	ibi.
Dioge. maner of teachyng.	80.	Diogenes, almoste persued
Diogenes made an abridge-		to gene ouer his philosophi-
mēt of all disciplines foꝛ his		call trade.	97.
scholares.	ibi.	Dioge. was called doggue.
Diogenes, howe he would be		97. 108. 117. 136. 137.
buried.	81.	Diogenes had a blotwe with a
Diogenes talkyng with Ale-		longe loggue.	98.
xander in his tubbe.	82.	Diogenes sekyng a man with
Diogenes whipped of young		a candell in the daye light.	99.
menne.	84.	Diogenes deluded a feloe foꝛ
Diogenes thought hymselfe		spꝛynglyng water vpo hym
		foꝛ

The Table.

for the purging of synnes. 101.	Alexander.	136. 150.
Diogenes chalēged for a spye by Philippus. 102.	Dioge. voide of superstitiō. 137.
Dio. threated of Verdicca. 103	Dioge. mocked a wastleer. 138.
Diogenes rebuked a feloe for wzaryng a Lyons skynne. 106.	Diogenes, what cositree māne he was. 140.
Dioge. called oratours thise double menne. 108.	Diog. drinkyng i a tauerne. 145
Dioge. comended an harper þ al others dispraised. 110. 111. 144	Diogenes asked a large almes of a prodigall spender. 148.
Diogenes had cast in his teth banishment. 112. 113.	Diogenes what he said beyng in a schole house. 152.
Dio. his maner of beggyng. 115.	Diogenes, howe he would be buried. 154.
Dionysus howe he entreated his frendes. 116.	Dionysus an euill scholemas- ter. 156.
Diogenes, why he became a philosophier. 112.	Displeasure of Philipp <sup>9</sup> with Olympias & Alexander. 177.
Didymi what it is. 119. and of Didymo reade in the. 151.	Dishes made from Augustus his table. 245
Diogenes, what he saied to a renneatwaye. 110.	Dictare discipulis. 272.
Dioge. what he said to a feloe that came to the hore house. 121	Dimitius Corbulo. 278.
Diogenes hated womanne. 122.	Diadozus. 307
Diogenes saluaciō to one that robbed graues & toūbes. 121.	Difference betwene histoꝛies and Annales 322.
Diogenes had neither manne noz womanne seruaunt. 122.	Dignus crasso est. 325.
Dioge. asked his almes. 129. 140	Dolphin fyshes, what their propeteē is. 53.
Diogenes banished for wy- nyng of moneye. 113. 129.	Dolobella asked a goldē chain of Augustus. 257.
Diogenes, why he vsed to eate in the open strete. 131.	Domiti <sup>9</sup> s senator of Rome. 282
Diogenes taunted Plato for his course fare. 132.	Drachme, what valure it is of. 42. 117.
Diogenes his answer to thē that derided hym. 131.	Drinkyng muche is mete for a spouge but not for a māne. 335.
Diogenes demed menne to be saued frō misanctures by ve- raye chaunce, and not by the grace of God. 133.	Durachum or Dirrachum a tounē in Macedonia. 268.
Diogenes his answer to A-	Diademe, what it is. 274.
	E
	Earyng vnmeasurabe. 35.
	Euill, what it is. 126.
	Eloquence of Plato. 74.
	Empier, a reigne of Empier holden with loue. &c. 155.
	Eunuchus. 95.
	E n

The Table.

Englyshe menne noted of ex- cellence earng and Germai- nes of dzyngyng.	55.	Excelle of dzyngyng is abhor- minable.	146.
Enemies, how a manne shuld be auenged on his enemye.	155.	Exhortaciōs made by philipp <sup>9</sup> to his sōne Alexander.	171.172.
Enemies howe thei are to bee ouercome.	278.	Example of chastitee in Alex- ander.	182.
Ennius an auncient poete.	321.	F
Epaminondas what he was.	96.	Fame honeste, howe it is to bee purchased.	5.
Epiraphie is a writing set on deed mennes tombes.	156.	Fassio of the Atheniens vsed with condēpned menne.	21.22.
Eris the goddesse of strifs.	42.	Fassio of staitge players in olde tyme.	50.
Erasmus defence for takyng giftes.	146.	Face of a manne ought to bee moost cleane.	56.
Erudicion of learnyng, what it profiteth.	151.	Fauour, the fauour of a Groum- pet is better lost then had.	147.
Erotes put to death by Au- gust <sup>9</sup> for eating of a quail.	227.	Familiare ielkyng betwene Antigonus & Antagozas.	217.
Eros a bondemañe of Cise.	312.	Fabia Dolobella mocked of Cicero.	319.
Euripides a philosophier.	16.	Fainte handleyng of a plea, argueth the cause to bee weake.	332.
Euthidemus the frende of So- crates.	33.	Feede onely to meynceyue life.	20.
Eutichides the seruaunte of Aristippus.	54.	Felicitee of kynges, what it is.	83.
Euclides was in the later dayes of Plato.	70.	Feelyng in a matier.	114.
Eurinus and Pontus are all one.	113.	Felicitee maketh menne false herted.	227.
Euill, what is euill.	126.	Felicitee and good fortune of Augustus.	230.
Everye bodye is best iudge of his owne facultee.	176.	Figges we choose and take of the best. &c.	112.
Eurylothus.	190.	Flaccus a poete.	153.
Eudimonicus a philoso.	199.	Fooly the hast and nedeleste.	16.
Excelle not beyng vsed, ma- keth all thynges good chepe.	18.	Fooly the same of menne.	71.
Exercise of the memozye.	36.	Fooly the same to no pur- pose.	87.89.
Excuse of synne.	46.	Folye of the parentes in cha- stisyng their children.	88.
Excuse of some that professe the conteypte of money.	55.	Fortune is not to bee imputed to enery
Externall thynges make no manne the better.	68.
Exercise of Diogenes his scholares.	80.

The Table.

to enery thyng.	101.160.	be refused.	11.
Fortresses woe nothyng auail		Giftes, Socrates would wone without hardye capitaines.	193.	take. &c.	18.
Forum hath a double significacion.	236.	Gluttons.	20.
Friendes are an high treasure.	6.	Glozie, is to many persones
Frugalitee of Socrates.	13.	more sweter then life.	192.
Friendes þ are true are greate possessions.	14.	God is to bee folowed as nere as we maye.	2.
Fruitelesse beyng in a straig courree.	18.	Good menne reioyce when they are troubleed.	23.
Fruite of philosophie.	43.	Good thynges are reiected because of the lewde persones that abuse them.	56.
Friendes should be tryed ere they be familyar.	61.	Golde, why it looketh pale.	110.
Freedom of the mynde is the right fred.	2.	Golde ouercōmeth all thynges.	166.
Frequent assemblies of the people.	71.	Good fortune wyrtē aboute the bucker of Demosthe.	335.
Friendes, how menne should not put forth their handes to their friendes.	79.151.155.	Gramarians what they wer.	76.
Frugalitee of Diogenes.	90.	Grande theues leade the peete theues to prison.	104.
Friendes should not desire any vniuste thyng one of another.	299.	Grosse meates make the bodie strong, but the wittes dulle.	114.
Furniture of the mynde.	27.	Granicus a floudde.	183.
		Greate thynges are not alwayes good, but good thynges are alwayes greate.	345.
G		H
Gasa, a colitree wher odours growe.	183.	Haste maketh waste.	38.
Galba had a misshapē bodie.	235.	Harmodius.	115.
Garlande Cluike.	257.	Harlottes.	155.
Gallius.	284.	Haynous transgressions must be suppressed by due correction.	168.
Geuyng a thing after it is ones asked, is to late.	18.	Harpe of Achilles and of Paris.	206.
Geometrie þ Socrates would haue studied.	38.	Hesiodus his verses.	10.16.
Germanes noted of muche drynyng and englyshmen of muche eatyng.	55.	Heracutus a philosophier.	12.
Gentlemen are pleased with their owne deoynges.	152.	Hemina, what it is.	18.
Giftes not profitable, ought to		He that can abide a curste wif neede not. &c.	25.
		Hellcon Cyziscenus a philosophier.	61.
			He is

The Table.

He is not in penurie, that may haue when he nedeth.	66.	Honest and vertuous menne	at the true ymages of God.	119.
Hercules the soonne of Iupiter.	106.	Honye mouthed persones.		119.
Hegeias a philosophier of the Epicures secte.	111.	Note houses.		121.122.
Hercules, how he was whipped in olde tyme.	116.	Honest menne are not the worse for the infamie of any place that they resort vnto.		142.
Hecateros.	164.	Homere feigneth death & slepe to be brother germaine.		154.
Hephaestion highly in fauour with Alexander.	187.	Housholdyng is not maintained with frugyng.		157.
Herode kyiled his owne soonne.	237.	Horacius the poete his saynges.		19.166.
Hellepontus.	206.	Homerus Ilias highly esteemed of Alexander.		204.
Hephaestion taller manne than Alexander.	207.	Humilitie of Socrates.		15.40.
Herennius.	234.	Husbandrye is profitable.		40.
Hemlocke vice, the price of an ounce.	302.	Humanitie and pacience of Philippus.		177.
High cares of a good prynce.	242.	Humilitie of Trigon.		212.222.
Hoggre is the best sauce.	3.13.27.	Humblenesse and modestie of Augustus.		229.
Honest name and fame, howe to bee purchased.	5.	Humanitie will hope the best of a frende.		288.
Honest mattres to set forth, euery manne is loathe.	8.	Hydra in fowls, expounded.		48.
Homere his verses.	10. 122. 123. 146.149.188.302.	Hypocrisis the chief poynt in eloquence.		343.
Honest geastes take all fare in good woorth.	20.
Holye dyed Socrates.	51.	I
Honest and vertuous loue.	32.	Ambigue verses.		13.
How an euill husbände maye befove money of hymself.	40.	Idlenesse is euermoze worse than thee blame.		10.
Honest menne maye vse delicate fare.	45.	Ideas that Plato denised.		123.
Homeres Rapsodies what they are.	76.	Ignorance is the onely euill thyng of the worlde.		14.
Horse vnbroken, apte to seruise.	45.	Immoderate and greedy eating.		35.
Housbände, the rule for the wife.	39.	Inordinate liuyng is more painful, than to liue foruouly.		4.
Hours best to eate meate.	98.	Incomodities of wedlocke, & out of wedlocke.		17.
		Insatiabie mynde of Alexs.		94.
		Inces

The Table.

Inueterato, a place of rhetorick.	110.	was not half a good clerke.	270.
Ingratitude of the Atheniens towarde Philipus.	163.	Julius Caesar refused to be called a kyng.	274.
Incommodities that some by playng at dyce.	194.	Julius Caesars hozse.	276.
Insolencie, a dangerous disease.	212.	Julius Caesar oppressed the comonweale.	278.
Ingratitude of manye persons.	288.	Julius Caesars dreame.	279.
Ingratitude of the people of Athens.	338.	Julius Caesar and Pompeius at variaunce.	310.
Italians vse abstinence for all diseases.	278.	Julius Caesar called Senates for euerie small matter.	317.
Judgement of the comen people.	4.	Jubius Curtius proued a lyer by Cicero.	319.
Judgemente pzeoposterous of the comon people.	14. 88.	K
Justice executed by Antigonus.	218.	¶ Howelage of mozell philosophie, what it profiteth.	10
Julia the daughter of Augustus.	252. 253.	We knowe no more then is in our memozye.	80.
Julia banished out of the courte of Augustus.	261.	Kynges maye not shewe fauour to all persones.	167.
Julius Caesar most like in factions to Alexander the gre.	263.	Kynges, howe farre they maye extende fauour.	168.
Julius Caesar, a man of a woonderous haule courage.	265. 268.	Kynges muste vse honest persones & abuse the vn honest.	172.
Julius Caesar put adware his wife Pompeia.	265.	Kynges learned, is an vnestimable treasure.	172.
Julius Caesars ambicions.	266. 267.	Kynges are euill reported for well dooyng.	196.
Julius Caesar woulde his high enterpryses should be dispeched without castyng perils.	267.	Kynges are not the rules of iustice, but the ministers.	213.
Julius Caesar matched Pompeius.	269.	L
Julius Caesar, what he saied when he saue in Roome straungiers carrye yong puppes.	271.	¶ Alcins a greke antour.	10
Julius Caesar, how he encountered his souldiours.	272.	¶ Lais an harlote of Corinth.	55. 342.
Julius Caesar saied that Sylla		Lacedemonians exercised their childzen in huntynge.	80.
		Lawyers contending.	125.
		Labourig for good qualitees.	135.
		Lawe, is there none without a citee.	153.
		Lafanum and Lafanophorus.	211.
		Lawe

The Table.

Lawe for such as killed their fathers.	256.	Loue, the occupation of ydle persones.	117.
Laberius a plaier.	171.316.	Lust must be refreined.	3.
Laodicia a citee in Asia.	317.	Lupines a kynde of poultz.	111.
Lenocinium, what it is.	32.	Lucius Lucullus.	286.
Letres of wytynges helpe not the memoire.	36.	Lucius Corra a greate dyner of wyne.	330.
Lenticula, what it is.	90.	Lyuyng inordinately, is more painfull then to lyue vertuously.	4.
Learnyng is no shame.	37.	Lysias an oratour.	25.26.100.
Lessons for yong prynces.	166.	Lyue, to lyue is no miserable thyng.	126.
Learned kynges an vnestimable treasure.	172.	Lysippus.	197.
Leonides the gouernour of Alexander.	182.
Lex Iulia.	229.252.	M.
Lex Pompeia.	256.	Many mene gene greater waiges to their helpers, then to the teachers of their children.	57.
Lentulus	284.	Many pretend the contempte of delicates.	55.57.
Leosthenes a mane of greatautoritee in Athenes.	296.	Many good thynges are reiected because of the lewde persons that vse them.	56.
Lentulus girt to a swerd.	314.	Manne is mooste sapiente and mooste folye.	71.
Libertee of the mynde.	67.	Mannes witte apte to all thynges.	ibi.
Libertee is the state of blisse.	107.131.152.	Mathematici, what they do.	76.
Liber pater, one of the names of Bacchus.	141.	Maistre that is wise, wil be aduised by his seruaunt.	82.88.
Life and death bothe are painfull to tyrannes.	157.	Macedonians conquered Greece.	ibi.
Liberalitee of Philippus.	171.	Manne, what it is.	82.
Like beareth loue to like.	192.330.	Mannes life standeth not in carnall pleasures.	104.
Liuis the wife of Augustus.	238.252.257.	Manne of all creatures the mooste miser.	108.
Licinius of a bondeseruaunte made free.	246.	Mannes the seruaunt of Diogenes.	127.
Liberalitee of Augustus toward learned menne.	251.	Many rebuke in others, & they emede not themselves.	129.130.
Libya a parte of Afrika.	281.
Libians had their eares bored full of holes.	308.
Loue honest and bettuous.	32.
Loue purchasid by vertue.	ibi.

The Table.

Masters genē to viciousnesse what thei dooe.	148.	Merie speakyng of Aristip- pus.	46.
Macedonians wer plain fe- loes.	167.	Measure is in all thynges a treasure.	50.
Machaetes wrongfully con- demned of Philippus.	173.	Menne maye instely refuse their soonnes if. &c.	65.
Macedonie was euer to litle foꝝ Alexander.	200.	Menne should haue no bayne communication	72.
Manacyng of greate mēne.	268.	Menne take peynes in bayne thynges.	76.
Wamertines a people in Si- cille.	281.	Menne should not put foorth emptie hāds to their frēdes.	79.
Wagn <sup>o</sup> the surname of Pom- peius.	282.	Mēnes woordes declare their myndes.	81.
Manly herte of Pompeius.	286. 291.	Menne, should weare swete floures in their bosomes, ra- ther then on their cappes.	96.
Many mēne punyche in others f̄ thei offēde in theimselfes.	7.	Menne there are but a fewe.	98. 99. 135.
Marcellinus put to silence by Pompeius.	287.	Megara, a toune in the coun- tree of Attica.	98.
Marcus Tullius Cicero.	203.	Megarians were rechelesse keepers of their children.	ibi.
Marcus Remilius Scaur <sup>o</sup> .	305.	Medecine foꝝ good appetite.	116.
Marcus Tullius would not forsake his surname.	305.	Merie saynges of Diogenes	125. 138. 139. 149.
Marcus Tullius his greate care and studie.	312.	Mercifulnesse of Antigone <sup>o</sup> .	214.
Marcus Caelius an oratour.	318.	Menne taken prysoners in warre, how thei wer vsed.	225.
Marcus Crass <sup>o</sup> an oratour.	324.	Metellus withstode Caesar from takyng moneye out of the treasourie.	268. 277. 307.
Marcus Appius mocked of Cicero.	329.	Menne, be thei neuer so high are with famyne made tame enough.	287.
Marcus Aquili <sup>o</sup> called of Ci- cero Adrastus.	329.	Menillus a capitaine.	298.
Meate and drynke muste bee taken with reason.	5.	Miserable is the pouertee of the mynde.	45.
Mecenas of Roome.	5.	Myce howe thei resorted to Diogenes his tubbe.	97.
Medleyng to muche in otheꝝ mennes matiers.	10.	Midias, howe Diogenes hād leed hym.	99.
Menne that desire to liue, muste frame. &c.	14.	Miseric, what thyng is moſte wiske
Menne that are good, woe suf- fre slaunders gladly.	23.
Merie saynges of Socrates.	24. 25. 35.
Men wherof thei shuld smell.	28.

The Table.

miserable in this world. 118. 126.	Octavi <sup>9</sup> Augustus Caesar. 225.
Miserie of warre. 166.	Oedipus. 91. 92.
Miletus a citie. 184.	Office of a schoole maistre. 21.
Mithridates kyng of Pontus. 218.	Office of kynges, is to heare euerie manne. 178.
Minerua by the ficciō of the poetes a perpetual birgin. 342.	Office of a biddell. 240.
Moderate exercitaciō of the bodie. 35.	Olympia, games of rennyng a waskleyng. 7. 113.
Money bynygeth a lynyng. 45.	Olde supersticion. 101.
Money, the right vse of it. 51.	Olympias, what she might dooe with Alexander. 205.
Moral philosophie, what it profited the philosophiers. 63.	Omnis iacta sit alea. 267.
Diogenes, howe he was mocked. 126.	Oracion made by Lysias for Socrates. 26.
Moderaciō of Alexander. 191. 196.	Oratours, Diogenes called them thuse double mēne. 108.
Moderation of Pompeius. 284.	Oracle what it is. 188. 347.
Myndus a tounne in Asia. 130.	Oulette takē by a souldyer. 248.
Mynde of manne, wherin it is hewed. 145.	Quinius the seruaunte of Martinius. 321.
N.	Oulette dedicate to Wallas. 338.
N ame and fame honest, howe to bee purchaced. 5.	P.
Nature hath prouyded for vs al necessarie household stuffe. 90.	Paience of Socrates. 11. 12. 19. 22. 24. 25. 34.
Newe comedie, what it is. 23.	Paience of Aristippus. 43. 47.
Neptunus, Iuppiter & Pluto were bycthen. 59.	Parentes foly in chastenyng their chyldzen. 88.
Nemea a region in Arcadia. 113.	Paience of Diogenes. 47. 99.
Nicolas Leoncenus. 4.	Parmenio, the onlye capitain of Philippus warres. 160.
Nicensse & tendzenesse hurteth menne. 8.	Parmenio excused Philipp <sup>9</sup> for slepyng in the daye tyme. 176.
Nisa a tounne in India. 203.	Parthesiastes. 179.
Nicolas the trustie seruaute of Phocion. 301.	Paedagogus, what he is. 182.
Nothyng moze sapiente then manne. 70.	Parillus one of Alexander his frendes. 183.
Noblenesse of birth, Diogenes called a cloke. 153.	Parasites, what they wer. 199.
Nomenclatores. 240.	Patroclus the frende of Achilles. 203.
Nummus, howe it is taken. 248.	Parris, what he was. 42. 207.
O.	Pacinnus Taurus. 235.
Observaciō of sepulchres. 236.	Paience of Phocion. 300.
	Part

The Table.

Personnes that ought to be receaued into frendship	7.	Philosophers, how they paye for their meales.	83. 149.
Personnes that lyue in all ease and pleasure.	13.	Philosophie healeth all diseases of the mynde.	86.
Persons þ lyue to be gluttons.	20.	Philosophie knowen, what it profiteth.	89.
Peynes of teachyng, is woorthie greate wages.	51.	Philosophiers haue the ouerhande of menne.	102.
Penelope the daughter of Iussaius.	63.	Philippus kyng of Macedonie.	102. 159. 335.
Personnes desperate, what they should dooe.	72.	Philippus chalenged Diogenes for a spye.	102.
Personnes feble & maymed who they be.	84.	What signe auenemous spider.	102.
Penaltee of a blowe in the old tyme.	100.	Philosophiers begge not, but requyre theyr owne.	107.
Perdicca, graund maister vnder Alexander.	103.	Philosophiers are beste that neede fewest thynges.	127.
Deloponnesians.	174.	Philosophiers are eaters of all manier of meates.	128.
Perdicca one of Alexander his capitaines.	202.	Philosophiers what are their offices.	154.
Pericles a noble manne of Athenes.	271.	Philippus his prayer whē he had sōdy good chaūces.	160.
Persons cōdēned to death.	22. 301.	Philippus contemned a feloe that railed on hym.	162.
Philosophie altereth nature.	33.	Philippus his clemencie and moderation.	163.
Phthia.	39.	Philippus oughed moſte thākes to suche as railed at hym.	163.
Philosophie, what fruite it byngeth.	43. 140.	Philippus called Athenes the stage of his glozie.	165.
Philosophiers woulde lyue well without lawes.	44.	Philippus his iudgemente vpon two flagitious feloes þ accused either other.	165.
Philosophiers haunte riche mennes houses.	45. 47.	Philippus suffred no manne þ gaue hym any thyng, to passe vnr recompēced.	169.
Philosophiers are phisicians of the mynde.	48.	Philippus deposed a iudge for dyng his heade.	172.
Philosophie is aboue Rhetorike.	50.	Philippus guilden.	197.
Philosophiers are moze excellent then oratours.	52.	Philippus wounded in fightyng against the Tryballes.	205.
Philosophiers knowe whē to speake and when not	ibi.
Phyne an herlotte.	59. 136.
Philosophiers are neuer in extreme penurye.	65.
Philosophy, what comodytees

The Table.

Pharnaces kyng of Wdr <sup>9</sup> .	269.	true frende.	14.
Phaates kyng of the Par- thians.	285.	Poison that Socrates dranke.	21.22.30.
Phocion a counsaillour of A- thenes.	291.	Pouertee of the mynde is mi- serable.	45.
Phocion was neuer seen laugh ne wepe.	ibi.	Polyaenus the Sophiste.	57.
Phocion vsed fewe woordes.	292.	Poindtyng With the fyngers.	87.
Phocion liked nothyng þ the grosse people either did or saied.	292.	Pontus and Eupinus are all one.	115.
Phocion refused money that Alexander offred hym.	294.298	Pouertee, a vertue soone learned.	158.
Phocion his counsaill to the Atheniens.	295.	Pozus his aunswer to Alex- ander.	195.
Phocion condemned to death by the Atheniens.	300.	Pozus one of the kynges of India.	196.
Phosion dyed an innocente.	301.	Pompeius had the benens- lence of menne.	230.
Phocion, what he saied to the hangmanne.	302.	Pollio Aninius.	259.
Phosion the are of Demosthe- nes his reasons.	334.	Pontifices, what thei wer.	265.
Pirates.	201.	Pompeius woonne the firste felde against Caesar.	268.
Piso married the daughter of Cicero.	311.314.	Pompeius could not skill saie Caesar, how to vse a victorie.	269.
Pleasure and peyne folden ei- ther other.	30.	Pontius Aquila made no res- uerence to Caesar.	275.
Plato and Aristippus were in courte with Dionysius.	44.	Pomponius a lauce knight.	276.
Place maketh not the pson of lesse dignitee.	52.	Pompeius refused honour till he had deserued it.	282.
Plato loued money better tha Aristippus did good fare.	58.	Pompeius triumphed beyng but a young manne.	282.285.
Plato refused to daunce in purple.	62.	Pompeius had moze regarde to the commeweale then to his owne safegarde.	287.
Plaine speakyng all menne cannot a lowe.	65.	Pompeius his vautes of hym selfe.	288.
Plato a mane of sobze diete.	72.	Pompeius what he saied of Cicero.	289.
Plato checked of Diogenes.	73.	Pompeius brought to vtter despaire.	ibi.
Plato loued clenlynesse.	ibi.	Pompeius wished to had been borne a poore manes sone.	290.
Plato his eloquence.	74.	Pompeius and Julius Caesar	49
Plato his diffinition of a mā.	98
Possessions, none so good as a

The Table.

at variaunce.	310.	Pythias, what he was.	334. 342
Pollio wrote Chronicles in Greke.	314.	Q uintus Luctacius Catu- lus.	304.
Prayers, of what sorte they should bee.	2.	Quintus Cicero, the brother of Marcus Cicero.	314.
Pride maye be in sackclothe.	22
Prisanci, what it is.	26.
Pride of Diogenes.	73.
Princes learned, the highest treasure to a comenweale.	43.	R aillyng against menne without trathe, toucheth them not.	23.
Prive ambition in Diogenes.	73. 99.	Repastes, measurably to bee taken.	8.
Prayers preposterous.	104.	Reache not at those thynges that are aboue our copace.	11.
Prouerbes. 78. 106. 110. 116. 135. 155. 167. 185. 207. 257. 267. 309. 324. 342.		Rebukyng euill, & yet to co- mytte the same.	35.
Profite, by a mans enemye.	163.	Reason is a lawe to a Philo- sophier.	44.
Princes maye not take their full rest in tyme of warre.	175.	Relative opposita.	132.
Princes myndes should not be vttered in tyme of warre.	211	Reigne of Empier, sauyng for the dignitee, is a mutuell ser- uitude.	215.
Prisoners taken in battaill, howe they wer vsed.	223.	Repentaunce foloweth of vnho- nest pleasures.	342.
Princes dooen perpetually care for their subiectes.	225.	Reuilyng one another, who so ouercometh, getteth the wurse.	344.
Prasens, how it maye be ta- ken.	243.	Rhapsodies of Homerus, what they are.	76.
Praxeror.	266.	Rhymirales kynge of the Thracians.	226.
Prive thenes loue the derke.	342.	Rhetoricians for their exer- cise, are woont to take fet- tered argumentes.	326.
Purchacyng of landes ought to bee moderate.	38.	Riche men are moze folyshe then others.	48.
Purple, none weare but kynges in olde tyme.	62.	Right vse of money	51.
Purple, death and princelye desteiny.	130.	Riche persones voyde of lear- nyng, Diogenes called theye with the golden flyes.	109.
Publius Manlius the hoste of Cicero.	317.	Riche men haue nede of ma- ny lessons.	158.
Publius Sextius mocked of Cicero.	328.
Pythia.	85.
Pyrrhus kynge of the Epiro- tes.	220.

The Table.

Romaines had. iij. names	305.	Senecus Cassius	215.
Rome how it was deuided.	312.	Sertorius.	284. 285.
Rostre.	315. 325.	Sextus Julius frontinus.	279.
Rule for the wyfe is the house.	39.	Serulia the mother of Marcus.	322.
Rubicon a floude.	268.	Shame is it none to learne.	37.
Ryot and prodigalitee causeth penurye.	100.	Shepe with golden flyces
Ryot is in young men foly.	286.	Wer in Colchos.	109.
		Sitenes, what they were.	40.
		Sinopa a citee in Pontus.	68.
		Sillogisme, what it is.	90. 95.
		Sinopa a baren region.	113.
		Sicknesse putteth vs in remembrance
		not to be proude.	212.
		Silenus the fosterfather of Bacchus.	223.
		Slender fare is to muche for euill geastes.	3.
		Slepe is an ymage of death.	203.
		Small varyaunces growe to scabbes.	66.
		Sophistes what they are.	14.
		Socrates refused to take giftes.	18.
		Socrates made stone ymages.	19.
		Socrates had two wyues at once.	24.
		Socrates dyed in perfite seruicitee.	31.
		Socrates, wherunto he was enclined.	33.
		Socrates familyer gooste.	ibi.
		Socrates thought it euill dooe to teache for moneye.	ibi.
		Solle of manne, how it passeth awaye.	36.
		Solle of manne, what it is.	ibi.
		Solle of manne shall retorne agayne.	37.
		Socrates had a vislon at his death.	39.
		Sophocles his verses.	66.
		Solle

S.

Sacrifice to God, ought not to be ouer sumptuous. 2.
 Sacrificyng meate & drynke. 30
 Sapiente and learned pines. 43.
 Sapience diffined. 47.
 Sapience cometh not by fortune. 62.
 Sapient, nothyng moze then manne. 71.
 Sapient menne haue al thynges. 91.
 Samos an ylle in the sea. 133.
 Satiri. 141
 Sacrifices, whiche are best. 293
 Science the only good thyng of the worlde. 14.
 Scholcmasters & their office. 31
 Scoldyng of bzyrbelles. 24.
 Scipio a noble capitaine in Roome. 269.
 Scylls and Charibdis. 119. 321.
 Seruautes how to be bought. 8
 Sertarius. 18.
 Seneca. ibi.
 Sete of the Ciniques. 22.
 Secrete hydyng an euill thyng. &c. 86.
 Serapis or Apis. 141.
 Sensualitee byngeth wretchednesse. 150.

The Table.

Solle and bodye, what they differ.	89.	Thynges made type by arte	arc bought to bere.	16.
Sophisticacions are not to bee soyled.	94.	Thakes that Diogenes gaue to Plato.		74.
Socratus an Alexandrine.	217.	Thersites, whose discription ye maye reade.		179.
Soldyours answers to Augustus.	247.248.	The Thebanes rebelled against Alexander.		191.
Sol omnia uidet ac reuelat.	309.	Thrasillus a Cinique.		216.
Spuesippus.	158.	Theocritus the Chian.		224.
Sphinx the monstre.	92.309.	Tharsus the chiefe citee in Cilicia.		227.
State of blisfulnesse.	41.	The Tarraconians flattered Augustus.		257.
Staige to serue, what it is.	78.	Themistocles a mane of great autoritee in Athenes.		310.
Stones hurled at a gibette.	105.	Title that Diogenes was solde bye.		79.
Stroumpettes.	140.	Tiros an ylle where the best purple is made.		240.
Schemus Lozde of the Martines.	281.	Timagnes for hated of Augustus burned the bookes that he had wytten of his chronicle.		258.
Strebo.	285.	Tiberi<sup>s</sup> succeded August<sup>s</sup>.		260.
Supersticion of olde tyme.	101.	Tigurines, a people of Germanie.		276.
Supersticious feare that many folkes haue.	112.	Tiberius for Biberius.		313.
Suppositii partus.	139.	To geue place to a ruler.		47.
Suyceuers.	276.	Tollus for Tullius.		323.
Sulpitius a Tribune.	277.	True libertee is of the mynde.		67.
Sweete sauoures moze meete for women then for menne.	28.	Triummmum millia, howe muche it is.		88.
Sweete sauoures defended by Aristippus.	68.	Tranquillitee of manne.		91.
Swoerde of leade, out of an inereye sheath.	145.	Tragicall execrations mette with Diogenes.		91.
Sweete sauoures, what they dooe.	147.	Treasure, where it is surest kepte.		198.
T		Triballes, a people nigh to Hungarie.		206.
Thyngs sheweth what a manne is.	28.29.	Tragedie of Augustus called Ajax.		232.
Tariles one of the kynges of India.	192.
Tarraconia a countree in Spayne.	253.
Terence.	35.
Tegea a citee of Arcadia.	138.

The Table.

Tribunes of Roome.	273.	Verſes recited by Diogenes.
Triumphing, what it is.	283.		127.130.157.
Tuſonius Flaccus his ann-		Verſes of publius Ninnis.	139.
Iwet to Auguſtus.	249.	Verſes of the poete Marciall.
Tullia the daughter of Cice-			147.
ro.	314.	Vertuous pſones loue ſhame-
Tullius his iekyng.	322.	faſtneſſe.	153.
Tyme well ſpent, is a good		Verſes cited by Alexander.	202
poſſeſſion.	15.	Vertius brake by his fathers
		graue.	236.
		Vertius Pollio, alias Ate-
		Pollio.	259.
		Verſes cited by Auguſtus.	262.
V arietee of learnyng ma-		Verſes out of a tragedie of keth not a learned mā.	49.	Euripides.	279.
Vaine ſophiſticacions are not		Verres a gentlemanne of to bee ſoyled.	94.	Roome.	306.323
Valerius Maximus.	160.	Verſes cited by Cicero.	309.
Vatinius had the goue.	241.	Verſes cited by Demosthenes.
Vatinius the enemye of Ci-			335.
cero.	308.314.315.318.320.327.	Winum Chium.	17.
Varius, hath a double ſigni-		Witruuius.	68.
ficacion.	332.	Wices of the mynde are onlye
Vertue and temperate dyete		ciuill thynges.	95.
to be vſed.	3.	Wylſſes the ſonne of Laertes.
Vertuous luyng is profita-			321.
ble.	4.	Wnfruitefull dooynges is y-
Verſes of heſiodus.	10.16.	denefſe.	10.
Verſes of Homere.	10.122.123.	Wnfruitefull beeyng in ſtraſige
140.146.149.		countrees.	18.
Vertue muſt be fought for.	17.85	Wnworthfull ſpeakyng.	22.23.61
Vertue is learned of a fewe.		Wninerfall calamities.	37.
	27.85.	Wnlearned menne are called
Vertue purchaceth loue.	32.	ſtones.	50
Vertue in young menne is cō-		Wnmeaſurable laude & praiſe
mendable.	35.	is to bee repproued.	143.
Vertue annoydeth naughtie		Wnſeaſonable houſbandrie.	189.
pleaſures.	39.	V no digito caput ſcalpere.
Verſes recited by Plato.	62.		324.
Verſes recited by Ariſtip-		Voconius and his. iij. ſoule
pus.	ibi.	daughters.	309.
Verſes out of a tragedie of		Wſe aſſuageth greefes.	114.
Sophocles.	6.289.
Vertues coſiſte in the meane.	87

The Table.

W Ayes to styl vnquyet persones. 109. Wastefull lauersers of theyr goodes. 134. Waye to wyne victorie. 170. Weapon nedeth not, where lawe maye serue. 290. Whether one bodie maye bee in many places at once. 60. William Wartham archbischop of Caunturburie. 5. Wisdom, when it shuld be used. 71. Wise menne esteeme thynges for the necessite of theim. 88. Wise princes make profita- ble instrumentes as well of the good persones as of the euill. 168. Womākynda is apte to learne all thynges. 19. Woodes spoken by Menede- mus to his soonne. 65. Woodes foolysly spoken, hrynng menne to trouble. 72. Woodes declare the mynde. 81. Woomenne, howe they shoulde be woonne. 125. Wyues are to be bozue with- al for their childrensakes. 24. Wyttie speakyng of Aristip- pus. 61. 64. Wyne, whiche is best. 116. Wyues in the olde tyme laye aparte fro their husbandes. 182. Wyttres excellent, marred by euill maisters. 9. 200.	Wyne of salernum. 313. Wyne of two hundred yeres olde. 314. F F Antippa, Socrates hys wyfe. 20. Fantippa threwe a pissebolle on Socrates his head. 24. Fantippes cancardnesse. 34. Fenophon became scholare to Socrates. 27. Fenophon his booke entitle- ed the banquet. 28. Feniades. 79. Feniades sonnes were taught of Diogenes. ibi. Fenocrates refused to take money of Alexander. 195. Fenophantus. 209. Y Y Mages are bought at high prices. 88. Ymages, the true ymages of God. 117. Youngemennes chiefest bet- tue. 35. Young folkes to viene theim selues in a glasse. 19. Younge age, moke apte to learne. 64. Younge rufflers rebuked of Diogenes. 125. Z Z Enon confuted by Dioge- nes. 94. Zele of Alexander towarde Homere. 198.
--	---

¶ The ende of the Table.