

Contents

Acknowledgements	viii
Introduction: Why break down borders?	1
1. In the shadow of the British Empire	11
2. Whitewashing and the myth of the migrant 'outsider'	21
3. Why should migrants contribute?	42
4. Building borders through headlines and column inches	50
5. Everyday borders and de facto border guards	74
6. The violence of detention and deportation	98
7. Big business and the 'profit motive' for borders	111
8. Borderlands of resistance	126
Conclusion: Living beyond borders	141