

CONTENTS

1 Introduction	1
Jenny Norton-Wright
Part I Theoretical Approaches to Exhibiting and Interpreting Islamic Art	13
2 Objects, Storytelling, Memory and Living Histories: Curating Islamic Art Empathically in an Era of Trauma and Displacement	15
Nancy Demerdash-Fatemi
3 Labelling Islam: Structuring Ideas in Islamic Galleries in Europe	31
Klas Grinell
Part II Case Studies: New Exhibitions Worldwide	45
4 Not Malacca but Marege: Islamic Art in Australia (or, 'What Have the Umayyads Ever Done for Us?')	47
Sam Bowker

5	From Mosque to Museum: The Museum of Islamic and Near Eastern Cultures, Be'er Sheva, Israel	63
	Sharon Laor-Sirak
6	Display of the Sacred Relics Gallery in the Museum of Turkish and Islamic Art, Istanbul	73
	Beyza Uzun
7	In Pursuit of Islamic Art in Moscow	83
	Galina Lasikova
8	Representing the Bangsamoro in an Exhibition of Ethnography at the National Museum of the Philippines	95
	Ana Maria Theresa P. Labrador and Cyril A. Santos
9	Displaying the Cultures of Islam at the British Museum: The Albukhary Foundation Gallery of the Islamic World	107
	Venetia Porter and William Greenwood
Part III Communities, Audiences and Education		117
10	Islamic Art and Saudi Arabia: Reconnecting Communities with Collections	119
	Idries Trevathan
11	Exploring World Faiths in Museum Collections: The Example of the Chester Beatty Library, Dublin	135
	Jenny Siung
12	Curating Islamic Art in the Central United States: New Approaches to Collections, Installations and Audience Engagement	145
	Kimberly Masteller
	Index	157