

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Foreword by Dario Castiglione	xi
Elinor and Vincent Ostrom and the Workshop	xix
Introduction: The Ostroms' Research Program for the Study of Institutions and Governance: Theoretical and Epistemic Foundations	1
Paul Dragos Aligica and Filippo Sabetti
Part One: Public Choice and Political Economy
Chapter One: Public Choice: A Different Approach to the Study of Public Administration	23
Vincent Ostrom and Elinor Ostrom
Chapter Two: Polycentricity: The Structural Basis of Self-Governing Systems	45
Vincent Ostrom
Chapter Three: The Quest for Meaning in Public Choice	61
Elinor Ostrom and Vincent Ostrom
Part Two: Beyond Public Choice: Institutions, Rules and Governance Systems
Chapter Four: An Agenda for the Study of Institutions	97
Elinor Ostrom
Chapter Five: A Behavioural Approach to the Rational Choice Theory of Collective Action	121
Elinor Ostrom
Chapter Six: Beyond Markets and States: Polycentric Governance of Complex Economic Systems	167
Elinor Ostrom

Part Three: Epistemic and Social Philosophical Perspectives

Chapter Seven: Beyond Positivism	213
Elinor Ostrom
Chapter Eight: A Conceptual-Computational Logic for Federal Systems of Governance	227
Vincent Ostrom
Chapter Nine: Epistemic Choice and Public Choice	243
Vincent Ostrom
Index	271