

CONTENTS

|          |   |           |
|----------|---|-----------|
| 1 | Contemporary Historical Fiction: Exceptionalism and Community After the Wreck                | 1  |
|          | Exceptionalism   | 6         |
|          | Community  | 12        |
|          | Inclusions, Choices, Methods   | 18        |
|          | References   | 22        |
| 2 | Historical Fiction and Wreckage: Hilary Mantel and Amitav Ghosh                              | 25 |
|          | Theorizing Historical Fiction  | 27        |
|          | Critical Approaches to Contemporary Historical Fiction                                       | 32        |
|          | Recovery and Wreckage: Hilary Mantel and Amitav Ghosh  | 36        |
|          | References   | 45        |
| 3 | Slavery and the Maroon Community: Barry Unsworth, Sacred Hunger                       | 47 |
|          | A History of Research  | 53        |
|          | Exceptional Systems and the Excepted Maroon Community  | 56        |
|          | Form: Situated Omniscience   | 66        |
|          | References   | 73        |
| 4 | War and Communities of Suffering: Richard Flanagan, The Narrow Road to the Deep North | 77 |
|          | Australia in the Pacific War   | 81        |

|          |  |     |
|----------|--|-----|
|          | Exceptional States and Communities of the Doomed        | 85  |
|          | At War with Narrative Form                              | 94  |
|          | References  | 101 |
| 5 | Racism and Communities Beyond Race: Toni Morrison,      |     |
|          | Home and God Help the Child                             | 103 |
|          | Morrison and Histories of Racism in America             | 107 |
|          | Exceptionalism and Community in Home and God Help the   |     |
|          | Child   | 114 |
|          | Inclusive Forms and Communities of Story                | 123 |
|          | References  | 129 |
| 6 | Indian Schools and Kinship Communities: Louise Erdrich, |     |
|          | LaRose  | 133 |
|          | Histories of Lost Children                              | 138 |
|          | The Kinship Community                                   | 146 |
|          | Kinship and Form  | 151 |
|          | References  | 159 |
| 7 | Disavowed Others and Ghostly Communities: George        |     |
|          | Saunders, Lincoln in the Bardo                   | 163 |
|          | Histories of Civil War                                  | 167 |
|          | Exceptional Citizens in a Communal Bardo                | 172 |
|          | Form: Genres, Fragments, and Permeable Borders          | 182 |
|          | References  | 187 |
| 8 | Global Fictions of Wreckage and Unsheltered Communities | 189 |
|          | References  | 199 |
|          | Index   | 201 |