

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: The Invention of Good Government for the Law of Nations	1
2	Vattel's Droit des gens. A Transnational Bestseller from the Age of Enlightenment	15
3	The Good Government: The Constituting and Constituted Nation	39
4	The First Reception: Sicily, Corsica and the Mediterranean Islands	59
5	The Great Crisis of the Sixties and the Political Reforms Between Piedmont and Tuscany	73
6	The Lost Manuscript and the First Italian Translation of Vattel's Droit des gens	95
7	The Consequences of the American Revolution: From Naples to Venice	113
8	Ships and Diamonds: Vattel Between Linguet and Casanova	137
9	From Natural Rights to the Rights of Man	155

10	Bern, the French Revolution and the Congress of Vienna	173
11	State and Nation: The Political Neutralisation of the Droit des gens in Nineteenth-Century Europe	195
12	Conclusion: Vattel's Droit des gens Between Good Government and Modern Democracy	219
	Bibliography	229
	Index	253