

Contents

Formal Linguistics and Language Education: Bridging the Gap	1
Andreas Trotzke and Tanja Kupisch
Part I Conceptual Foundations
Formal Linguistics and Language Education: A View from Bilingualism Research	11
Fatih Bayram and Jason Rothman
Grammatical Concepts for Pedagogical Grammar	21
Tom Rankin and Melinda Whong
Part II Native Language Settings
Teaching Word Order Variation with a Constraint-Based View on Grammar	45
Daniel Gutzmann and Katharina Turgay
Grammar Is Irrelevant – The Role of Epistemological Beliefs in Students’ Learning Success	69
Daniela Elsner
Shaking Students’ Beliefs About Grammar: Some Thoughts on the Academic Education of Future Language Teachers	91
Sandra Döring
Do Linguistic Landscapes Influence the Spelling Competence of Orthographic Beginners? Two Case Studies	111
Björn Rothstein
Part III Second/Third Language Settings
The Present Tense in English, Again	133
Amber Dudley and Roumyana Slabakova

Post-instruction Processing of Generics in English by Japanese L2 Learners	155
Neal Snape
Explicit and Implicit Knowledge of Article Semantics in Belarusian Learners of English: Implications for Teaching	179
Anders Agebjörn
L2 Influence in L3 Acquisition: The Role of the L3	203
Rosalinde Stadt, Aafke Hulk, and Petra Sleeman	