

Practices of Projection

Histories and Technologies

Edited by

GABRIEL MENOTTI

VIRGINIA CRISP

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Contributors vii

1. Situating Projection 1
Gabriel Menotti and Virginia Crisp

PART 1. PROJECTION HISTORIES AND GEOGRAPHIES

2. A New 'Wild West' of Projection 19
Michael Pigott and Richard Wallace
3. The Craft of the Rural Cinema Operator: Improvised Exhibition and the Highlands and Islands Film Guild, Scotland (1946–71) 36
Ian Goode
4. Solar-Powered Cinema and Sustainable Projections 52
Stefania Haritou
5. Film Projection and the Sacred Geography of Site-Specific Cinema in Contemporary Thailand 65
Richard L. MacDonald

PART 2. PROJECTION ELEMENTS AND TECHNOLOGIES

6. Six (or Seven) Ways of Looking at a Lantern Slide 87
Richard Crangle
7. Between Copyright and Creativity: Edison's Kinetoscope and Technological Innovations in Optical Printing 104
Amanda Egbe
8. 'It's all just a little bit of History repeating': Slide-Tape's Key Works in the UK since the 1970s 122
Mo White

9.	Summoning the Ghosts of Early Cinema and Victorian Entertainment: Kate Moss and Savage Beauty at the Victoria and Albert Museum Su-Anne Yeo	136
10.	Researching Virtual, Augmented, and Mixed Realities: or, How the Elastic 3D Spaces Project Emerged from an Outdoor Projection Event Anthony Head and Leila Sujir	155
11.	They'll Take Whatever You Feed Them: Reflections on Projection in Live Audiovisual Performance Cornelia Lund	173
PART 3. PROJECTION AS KNOWLEDGE AND INTERPRETATION
12.	 Casting : Investigation of Projection Mapping's Spatiality in a Continuum of Projected Moving-Image Art Yiyun Kang	193
13.	Projection between Exhibition and Information: Experimental and Artists' Films at Sonsbeek 71 Adeena Mey	211
14.	Bark and Butterflies : Projection, Post-memory, and Phantasmagoria Adrian Palka	237
15.	Imagistic Projection as Relational Becoming Felix Rebolledo Palazuelos and Andréia Machado Oliveira	263
	Index	283