

Contents

Preface . . . . .	7
A Note on Transcriptions and Abbreviations . . . . .	13
I The Bridge, the River, the Mountains, and the Builders . . . . .	15
II The Church, its Founders, and its Saints . . . . .	23
III Chapels, Hospitals and Pious Donors . . . . .	49
IV The “Comune” and Republic . . . . .	65
V Illustrious Heroes, from Scripture and from Ancient Rome . . . . .	81
VI Civic Humanism in Public and Private Memorials . . . . .	91
VII The Advent of Medici Monarchy . . . . .	123
VIII The Medici Comeback . . . . .	143
IX Cosimo de’ Medici, the Second Duke and first Grand Duke . . . . .	157
X Cosimo’s Successors . . . . .	201
XI The Cult of Art and Learning . . . . .	237
XII The Cult of Michelangelo . . . . .	251
XIII Belated Honours for Galileo . . . . .	275
Notes . . . . .	295

Bibliography . . . . .	315
Index of Places & People . . . . .	329
Index of Ancient Authors . . . . .	345
Indices of Inscriptions . . . . .	351
1. Formal Aspects of Florentine Epigraphy . . . . .	351
2. Roman Inscriptions featuring in Early Syllogae, which influenced Florentine Epigraphy of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Centuries. . . . .	352
3. Index of Roman Inscriptions quoted in this Book. . . . .	356
Image Credits . . . . .	359
Postscript . . . . .	361