Contents

1	Introduction	1
	Questions Explored in This Project	2
	Background	3
	Research Approach	4
	Research Methods	5
	Material Culture	8
	Memory	9
	The Research Participants	9
	Creation of the Sheltered Housing Scheme	10
	End of an Era	13
	Locating the Research	15
	Lambeth	16
	Brixton	18
	Walking Through Brixton	19
	Structure of the Book	30
	Conclusion	32
	Bibliography	33
2	The Complexity of Belonging: Theoretical Perspectives	37
	Introduction	37
	Themes	37
	Understanding Belonging	38
	Caribbean Kinship and Origins of the Lower-Class Black Family	40
	Class and the Family Structure	45

Family Structure and Belonging 46
Lessening Connection to Family Land 48
Gender Equality 49
Migration and Belonging 51
Globalisation and Migration 52
Migration, Separation, and Re-localisation 54
Agency 56
Outsiders? 59
My Assessment Framework 64
Conclusion 66
Bibliography 67

3 Elderhood and Black Sheltered Housing 75
Introduction 75
The Complexities of Old Age 75
The African Caribbean Sheltered Housing Scheme 76
Mitigating the Exclusion of Black Elders 82
Elderhood in the West Indian Context 83
Ageism and a Preference for Younger People 86
Different Approaches to Elderhood 90
Respect for the Elderly in the Community 93
Elders and the State 100
Concerns About the Position of the Black Elderly 103
Conclusion 106
Bibliography 107

4 The Experience of Migration: Planting Roots 109
Introduction 109
Local Connections 110
Dispersed Connections 119
The Effect of Dispersal 122
Migration, Identity, and the Individual Focus 125
Which Home Is Home? 132
Conclusion 139
Bibliography 140

5 The Elder's Children: Family Relations and Gender Differences 143
Introduction 143
Concerns of This Chapter 143
Circumstances Behind Movement into the Scheme 144
Kinship, Social Organisation, and Gender Relations 149
Gender Equality 157
The Formation of the Marginal Male Position 163
Understanding the Gender Differences 169
Movement, Kinship, and Gendered Roles 175
Conclusion 178
Bibliography 178

6 Socialisation: 'Small Garden, Bitter Weed' 181
Introduction 181
Being Local 182
Differences 183
Together and Divided 189
Mutual Support 195
Culture 'V' the State 198
Outsiders Within 202
The Dominoes Group 204
Bickering 207
New Year, Old Things 210
Impact of the Church 211
From Windrush 'till Now 216
Belong: In or Out? 217
Reflections of the New Scheme Manager 219
Conclusion 222
Bibliography 223

7 Elder's Engagement with State Support Services 225
Introduction 225
The Equalities Ethos 226
BME Difficulties 227
The Administrative Paradox 228
Navigating Support and Care 230

Management Issues 232
Consultation and Conflict 239
Ethnicity, Culture, and Staffing 243
Ambivalence and Ambiguity Towards Ethnic Difference 247
Personal Care and Cultural Differences 250
Culture or Personality Differences 256
Conclusion 260
Bibliography 260

8 Conclusion 263
Introduction 263
The Research Framework 264
Research Findings 265
Where the Elders Belong 269
Contribution to Anthropology 272
Bibliography 273

Appendix: Genealogy Charts 277

Bibliography 295

Index 309