

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Contributor Biographies	xi
Introduction Katherine E. Bishop	1
Part 1: Abjection
1 Weird Flora: Plant Life in the Classic Weird Tale Jessica George	11
2 'Bloody unnatural brutes': Anthropomorphism, Colonialism and the Return of the Repressed in John Wyndham's The Day of the Triffids Jerry Määttä	32
3 Botanical Tentacles and the Chthulucene Shelley Saguario	56
Part 2: Affinity
4 Between the Living and the Dead: Vegetal Afterlives in Evgenii Iufit and Vladimir Maslov's Silver Heads Brittany Roberts	81
5 Vegetable Love: Desire, Feeling and Sexuality in Botanical Fiction T. S. Miller	105
6 Alternative Reproduction: Plant-time and Human/ Arboreal Assemblages in Holdstock and Han Elizabeth Heckendorn Cook	127

Part 3: Accord

7	Sunlight as a Photosynthetic Information Technology: Becoming Plant in Tom Robbins's Jitterbug Perfume Yogi Hale Hendlin	151
8	The Question of the Vegetal, the Animal, the Archive in Kathleen Ann Goonan's Queen City Jazz Graham J. Murphy	176
9	Queer Ingestions: Weird and Sporous Bodies in Jeff VanderMeer's Fiction Alison Sperling	194
10	The Botanical Ekphrastic and Ecological Relocation Katherine E. Bishop	214
	Selected Bibliography	233
	Index	237