

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
PART I. FOUNDATIONS
Introduction. The Russian Cold Julia Herzberg, Andreas Renner, and Ingrid Schierle	3
Chapter 1. Climate Ideas and the Cold in Russia Julia Herzberg	19
PART II. SCIENCE AND POLITICS
Chapter 2. The Nature of Cold: Russia's Climate and the Academy of Sciences in the Eighteenth Century Julia Herzberg	47
Chapter 3. The Russian South Pole Expedition in the Context of Political Interests of the Soviet Union during the Cold War Era Erki Tammiksaar	74
Chapter 4. The Subarctic: A Classic Soviet Study of the Tundra Denis J. B. Shaw	95
PART III. IMAGES AND NARRATIVES
Chapter 5. From a "Country of Cold and Gloom" to a "Welcoming Land": Climate and the Image of Siberia in the Russian Periodical Press, 1860s to the Early 1900s Nataliia Rodigina	113

Chapter 6. Local Warming: Cold, Ice, and Snow in Russian and Soviet Cinema	134
Appendix: Filmography	154
Oksana Bulgakowa
Chapter 7. The Aesthetics of Cold: Narrating National Trauma in Film	169
Roman Mauer
PART IV. PAIN AND PLEASURE
Chapter 8. The Wehrmacht and the Russian Winter: The Impact of Climate at the Front and in Soviet Captivity	187
Aleksandr Kuzminykh
Chapter 9. Winter Tourism and Skiing in the Soviet Union: School of Courage, Source of Health, National Pastime	204
Aleksei Popov
Chapter 10. Heroes of the Ice: The Polar Explorer and the Ice Hockey Player as Two Masculine Identity Scripts of the Soviet Era	226
Alexander Ananyev
Conclusion	249
Julia Herzberg, Andreas Renner, and Ingrid Schierle
Index	255