

CONTENTS

| | | |
|---|---|----|
| 1 | Introduction: Amputation and the Semiotics of “Loss” Maren Scheurer and Erik Grayson | 1 |
| | Part I The Politics of Amputation | 19 |
| 2 | “Lame Doings”: Amputation, Impotence, and Community in The Shoemaker’s Holiday and A Larum for London Rachel Ellen Clark | 21 |
| 3 | Complicating the Semiotics of Loss: Gender, Power, and Amputation Narratives Lena Wänggren | 43 |
| 4 | Stalin’s Samovars: Disabled Veterans in (Post-)Soviet Literature Oxane Leingang | 61 |
| | Discussion: The Politics of Amputation | 85 |

| | | |
|-----------------|--|-----|
| Part II | Amputation's Intersections | 89 |
| 5 | "She Had Wept So Long and So Much on the Stumps": Amputation and Embodiment in "The Girl Without Hands" Miranda Corcoran | 91 |
| 6 | Defective Femininity and (Sur)Realist Empowerment: Benito Pérez Galdós's and Luis Buñuel's Tristana Andrea Gremels | 113 |
| 7 | "Even at This Late Juncture": Amputation, Old Age, and Paul Rayment's Prosthetic Family in J.M. Coetzee's Slow Man Erik Grayson | 137 |
| | Discussion: Amputation's Intersections | 155 |
| Part III | Grief and Prosthetic Relations | 159 |
| 8 | The Penalty in Novel and Film: Grieving with the Vengeful Amputee Susan Kerns | 161 |
| 9 | "The Blunt Remnant of Something Whole": Living Stumps and Prosthetic Relations in Thomas Bernhard's Die Billigesser and Philip Roth's The Plot Against America Maren Scheurer | 185 |
| 10 | "But the Damage ... Lasted": Phantom Pain and Mourning in Moritz's Anton Reiser Juliane Prade-Weiss | 211 |
| | Discussion: Grief and Prosthetic Relations | 233 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| Part IV Philosophy, Language, Disability | 237 |
| 11 Zhuangzi, Amputees, and Virtue (de) Danesh Singh | 239 |
| 12 Speech—Amputation—Writing: Philomela's Notalogy Thomas Emmrich | 257 |
| 13 (In)complete Amputation: Body Integrity Identity Disorder and Maurice Blanchot Monika Loewy | 289 |
| Discussion: Philosophy, Language, Disability | 311 |
| Further Reading | 315 |
| Index | 321 |