

CHALLENGE AND CONFORMITY

The Religious Lives of Orthodox Jewish Women

LINDSEY TAYLOR-GUTHARTZ

London

The Littman Library of Jewish Civilization
in association with Liverpool University Press

2021

CONTENTS

List of Tables	xi
Note on Transliteration	xii
Introduction	I
1. Studying Jewish Women	10
The Double Invisibility of Orthodox Jewish Women	12
The Scope of Women's Religious Lives	17
Overlapping Worlds I: The Intersection of Men's and Women's Religious Lives	22
Overlapping Worlds II: Living in Jewish and Western Contexts	30
Power and Patriarchy: Do Orthodox Women Have Agency?	32
2. Setting the Scene: The Jewish Landscape	37
Jews in Britain: Historical Background	37
Community, Communities, Networks, and Identity	39
The Development of British Orthodoxy and the British Jewish Landscape	44
Jewish Religious Topography Today	49
Changing Moods among British Jewish Women	57
Defining Terms: Talking about the Anglo-Jewish Community	60
Previous Research on British Orthodox Women	66
3. The View from the Ladies' Gallery: Women's 'Official' Life in the Community	69
Women and the Synagogue	69
The Changing Place of Women in Other Communal Institutions	111
4. Contested Prayers and Powerful Blessings: Women's 'Unofficial' Life in the Community	123
Creating Sacred Spaces	124
Nurturing the Community	150
New Developments: Sharing the Sacred with Men	165

5. The View from the Kitchen: Women's 'Official' Life in the Family	177
The Sabbath	179
Food and Kashrut	183
Passover	188
Mikveh and 'Family Purity'	191
Modesty	196
Visiting the Dead	199
Prayer and Relationship with God	201
6. Red Threads and Amulets: Women's 'Unofficial' Life in the Family	208
Questioning the Community: Limitations and Caveats	209
Definitions and Status of Practices	212
Testing Stereotypes and Assumptions	216
Who Practises These Customs?	218
What Customs Are Practised?	219
Age as a Factor in the Knowledge and Performance of Customs	223
Origins and Development	233
The Question of Magic	237
Women's Understandings of Customs and Practices	242
7. Conclusion	252
Appendix I. List of Interviewees	261
Appendix II. The Questionnaire: A Sample Page	266
Appendix III. Annotated List of Customs from the Questionnaire	268
Appendix IV. Background Data on Respondents	284
Glossary	285
Bibliography	291
Index	307

LIST OF TABLES

1. Categories of women's religious activities, with examples	8
2. Religious affiliation of Jews in Israel, the UK, and the USA (2013–2018)	21
3. Religious self-definition of UK Jews (2002) by denominational affiliation	64
4. Women's synagogue attendance on sabbath morning in selected synagogues (spring–autumn 2013)	74
5. Material and spiritual benefits (segulot) associated with blessings recited before eating different foods	154
6. Sources of knowledge for women's customs, grouped by generation and gender of source	217
7. Number of distinct customs reported within categories of customs on the questionnaire, in declining order	219
8. Customs most commonly performed, by age group	220
9. Respondents' knowledge of the 191 customs recorded on the questionnaire, by age group	224
10. 'High performers' of customs, by age group	224
11. 'Low performers' of customs, by age group	224
12. 'High' and 'low' performers within each age group	225
13. Customs most popular among 18–30-year-olds	226
14. Customs most popular among women aged 71 and over	227
15. Knowledge of customs against the evil eye versus performance in the 18–30 and 71+ age groups	228
16. Popularity of customs of non-Jewish origin, by age group	229
17. Popularity of customs of pietistic origin, by age group	230
18. Knowledge of the ten most popular pietistic customs versus performance in the 18–30 and 71+ age groups	232
A.IV.1. Affiliation and age breakdown of respondents	284
A.IV.2. Place of birth of respondents	284
A.IV.3. Countries accounting individually for less than 3% of respondents' grandparents	284