

Contents

List of Figures	viii
List of Abbreviations	ix
Foreword	xv
Preface	xvii
Introduction	1
1 The Ecology of the Fourth Gospel: Bachelard's Hermeneutics of Home and Martyn's "Two-Level Drama"	9
2 Space Matters for Scripture and Ecology Matters for Space: Critical Observations from John 4	39
3 The Undisputed Pauline Corpus and Gentile Believers as the Dwelling of God	59
4 Identification with a Marginal Home: Waters of Judgment as the Oppressed in the Parables of Enoch	77
5 Prison and Pit, Doors and Dwelling: Phenomenologies of the Familiar in the Book of Revelation	97
6 "Real" Visions of the Ideal Home: From Ascetic Dwellings to the Isle of the Blessed Ones in the History of the Rechabites	121
7 Augustine's Christological Emphasis in De Trinitate : An Affirmation of the Human Ecology	145
8 Conclusions and Prospect: The Core Function of "Ecology" in Scriptural Production and Interpretation	161
Acknowledgments	171
Bibliography	175
Ancient Sources Index	187
Modern Author Index	200
Topical Index	203