

Contents

List of Figures	ix
List of Tables	xiii
List of Contributors	xiv
Acknowledgments	xviii
Introduction Greg Niedt and Corinne A. Seals	1
Part 1 Other Forms of Language Classroom
1 From Part of the Scenery to Curricular Resources: Authentic Signs as Portals to Cultural Practices within a Residential German Language Immersion Program Justin Quam and Heidi E. Hamilton	13
2 Unveiling Sign Languages in the Linguistic Landscape: Representations of Sign Languages in Nonsigning and Signing Milieux Jami Fisher, Donna Jo Napoli, and Gene Mirus	37
3 New Caledonia: A Semiotic Analysis of the Landscape as an Opportunity for Learning Diane de Saint Léger and Kerry Mullan	57
Part 2 Structured Spaces Becoming Classrooms
4 The Linguistic Landscape of Public Health Institutions in Tanzania Paschal Mdukula	77
5 Information, Education, and Language Policy in the Linguistic Landscape of an International Airport in New Zealand Una Cunningham and Jeanette King	97
6 English Learning Experience in a Textile Company in Turkey Yasemin Kırkgöz	117
7 The Public Discourse and Presentation of Migrant Groups within a Museum Space Barbara Loester	133
Part 3 LLs as Activist Education
8 Exploring Multimodal Story Houses in the Indigenous Paiwan-Rukai Post-Disaster Reconstruction Chun-Mei Chen	155

9	Activist Teaching through the Linguistic Landscape in Göttingen and Lviv Corinne A. Seals and Greg Niedt	177
10	Educating the Public? Affective and Epistemic Stances as Approaches to Campaigning during Ireland's Eighth Amendment Referendum Louis Strange	197
11	Dynamic Walking Tour Methodology for LL Research: A Case Study in Jaffa Amir Michalovich, Sarah Naaman, Moraia Trijnes, Iman Agbaria, and Elana Shohamy	217
	Index	238