

A History of Tourism in Africa

Exoticization, Exploitation, and Enrichment

Todd Cleveland

OHIO UNIVERSITY PRESS

Athens

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction: Touristic Illusions and Realities	I
ONE Initial Touristic Incursions to Africa	20
TWO Hunting in Africa Invisible Guides, Big Game, and Bigger Egos	37
THREE Profits and Propaganda Tourism in Colonial Africa	62
FOUR Paradoxes of Independence Modernizing by Promoting Primitivism	86
FIVE The Touristic Invention of the African Camera Safari	110
SIX Going Home The Diasporic Quest for Belonging through "Roots" Tourism	130
SEVEN Controversial New(er) Forms of Tourism in Africa	152
Study Guide and Selected Readings	177
Notes	183
Index	199

ILLUSTRATIONS

Figures

1.1	The Great Sphinx at Giza, Egypt	25
2.1	Specimens from Roosevelt's African safari in the National Museum of Natural History	51
3.1	The Victoria Falls Hotel, c. 2005	67
3.2	Martin and Osa Johnson on the Kenya and Uganda Railroad in Nairobi, 1925	69
4.1	Tourism at the Mantenga Cultural Village, featuring local performers and foreign tourists	95
5.1	Safari lodge, just outside Etosha National Park, in Namibia	111
5.2	An American child on safari in Eswatini, 2017	118
6.1	Elmina Castle, Ghana	132

Maps

1.1	Africa	xii
1.1	Egypt and Sudan	27
2.1	Southern Africa	43
2.2	European Colonial Empires in Africa	47