

Contents

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	xi
FOREWORD BY RABIA HARRIS, COMMUNITY OF LIVING TRADITIONS	xiii
EDITOR'S INTRODUCTION BY HELEN T. BOURSIER, COLLEGE OF ST. SCHOLASTICA	1

SECTION ONE • A FIRMLY FLUID FOUNDATION FOR WOMEN'S STUDIES IN RELIGION

1	A Work in Progress: Feminist Scholarship Shaping God's Image—Then and Now by Jacqueline J. Lewis, Middle Collegiate Church, New York	11
2	The Inclusive Language of God: Why It Matters for Women's Studies in Religion by Yudit Kornberg Greenberg, Rollins College	21
3	Doing Women's Studies in Religion—A Methodology Primer for Moving from the Classroom into Real Life by Natalie Kertes Weaver, Ursuline College	37
4	Women's Creative Research Methodologies on the Peripheries and at the Border: Latina Women's Restorative Interventions through Art and Activism by Rebecca M. Berru-Davis, St. Catherine University, St. Paul, Minnesota	45

SECTION TWO • ETHICAL CONNECTIONS

5	Where Ecofeminism Meets Religions: Contributions and Challenges by Heather Eaton, Saint Paul University in Ottawa, Canada	61
6	Reconfiguring Economic Sustainability: A Feminist Ethic for Liberty and Justice for All by Sharon D. Welch, Meadville Lombard Theological School (Unitarian Universalist)	75
7	Feminist Ethics and the Harms of Credibility Excess by Candace Jordan, Princeton University, PhD candidate	93
8	Do Not Pass Me By: A Womanist Reprise and Response to Health Care's Cultural Dismissal and Erasure of Black Women's Pain by Anjeanette M. Allen, Chicago Theological Seminary, PhD Student	107

SECTION THREE • RELIGIOUS DIVERSITY AND WOMEN'S STUDIES IN RELIGION

- 9 Constructing Wicca as "Women's Religion": A By-Product of Feminist Religious Scholarship by Michelle Mueller, Santa Clara University 123
- 10 For All Sentient Beings: The Question of Gender in Tibetan and Himalayan Buddhist Communities by Amy Holmes-Tagchungdarpa, Occidental College 143
- 11 Introducing Asian Transpacific American Feminist Theology by Keun-Joo Christine Pae, Denison University 155
- 12 "I Am the One Who Will Change the Direction of the World": A Female Guru's Response to Sexual Inequality and Violence in Hinduism by Antoinette E. DeNapoli, Texas Christian University 169
- 13 Women in the Jewish Tradition: A Brief Overview of Jewish Feminism in the Last 50 Years by Yudit Kornberg Greenberg, Rollins College 183
- 14 Muslimah Theology and Praxis by Zayn Kassam, Pomona College 191
- 15 Homiletical Changes and Preaching Leadership of Women in the Christian Church by HyeRan Kim-Cragg, Emmanuel College, University of Toronto 205

SECTION FOUR • CHALLENGING AND CHANGING SYSTEMIC GENDER INJUSTICE

- 16 What's Religion Got to Do with Sexual Violence and the #MeToo Movement? by Marie M. Fortune, FaithTrust Institute 221
- 17 Femicide in Global Perspective: A Feminist Critique by Helen T. Boursier, College of St. Scholastica 231
- 18 Call to Accountability: Women's Studies in Religion Critiques State Culpability to Femicide through Border Controls and Exclusion from Asylum by Helen T. Boursier, College of St. Scholastica 247
- 19 Doctrine of Discovery: A Mohawk Feminist Response to Colonial Dominion and Violations to Indigenous Lands and Women by Dawn Martin-Hill, McMaster University 263
- 20 Women's Religio-Political Witness for Love and Justice by Rosemary P. Carbine, Whittier College 281

SECTION FIVE • FUTURE MOVEMENT—THE BECOMING OF WOMEN'S STUDIES IN RELIGION

- 21 Feminism, Religion, and the Digital World by Gina Messina, Ursuline College 301
- 22 Documenting, Changing, and Reimagining Women's Mosque Spaces Online by Krista Melanie Riley, Vanier College, Montreal, Quebec, Canada 313

23	Minoritized Sexual Identities and the Theo-Politics of Democracy by Ludger Viefhues-Bailey, LeMoyne College	327
24	Spiritual Homelessness and Homemaking: A Nomadic Spirituality for Survivors of Childhood Violence by Denise Starkey, College of St. Scholastica	339
25	Hope Now by Cynthia L. Rigby, Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary	353
26	Resources for Clarification, Education, and Action	361
	INDEX	383
	ABOUT THE CONTRIBUTORS	399