

Art History in a Global Context

Methods, Themes, and Approaches

Edited by Ann Albritton and Gwen Farrelly

WILEY Blackwell

Contents

Notes on Contributors vii

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 1

Part I Themes in Global Art History 11

- 1 A Porous Iron Curtain: Artistic Contacts and Exchanges across the Eastern European Bloc during the Cold War (1960–1980) *13

Cristian Nae

- 2 Environments and Sustainability *27

Ann Albritton

- 3 Gender, Race, and Feminism: Specificity in a Global Context: The Case of Chicanas Latinas and Latin American Women Artists, 1960s–1980s *35

Cecilia Fajardo-Hill

Part II Global Art History in Practice/Praxis 55

- 4 Exhibitions and Biennials in a Global Context *57

Ann Albritton

- 5 Global Art Histories and Museums 77
Gwen Farrelly
- 6 Global Art History and its Asymmetries through Two Exhibitions: From The Global Contemporary to India and the World 87
Parul Dave Mukherji
- Part III Global Art History and the Past 105
- 7 Rituals in Art 107
Ann Albritton
- 8 Migration and Transnational Temporalities in the South Indian Diaspora 119
Judy Peter
- 9 “A Global Learning for All”: Creative Pedagogy in Art History 139
Pearlie Rose S. Baluyut and Sarena Abdullah
- Index 153