

Contents

About the authors	ix
Preface	xi
Acknowledgements	xv
Map	xvii
PART ONE – CONTEXT	1
1. Introduction	3
2. Globalisation and International Trade	21
3. Supply Chain Strategy: Lean and Agile	31
4. Service Supply Chains	51
5. Systems and Networks	62
Part One Case Studies	74
Dell – Pioneers in Mass Customisation	74
Jaguar Land Rover’s Global Supply Chain: From Design to Execution	77
PART TWO – TRANSPORT AND LOGISTICS	91
6. Transport	93
7. Containerisation	106
8. Logistics Service Providers	117
9. Facilitating International Freight Flows	127
Part Two Case Studies	138
Air Cargo	138
Port-Centric Versus Inland Location Decisions in Gothenburg, Sweden	143
PART THREE – MANAGING OPERATIONS	149
10. Inventory Management, Planning and Control	151
11. Materials Handling and Warehousing	167
12. Outsourcing, Offshoring and Procurement	183
Part Three Case Studies	203
The Medical Devices Company	203
Patient Safety and the Pharmaceutical Supply Chain	205

PART FOUR – DATA AND ANALYSIS	215
13. Data Flows and Digitisation	217
14. Management Science Applications	229
15. Managing Vulnerability	239
Part Four Case Studies	252
Contamination in the Bulk Agri-Commodity Logistics Chain	252
Supply Chains Become Self-Thinking	259
PART FIVE – SUPPLY CHAIN DESIGN AND IMPROVEMENT	263
16. Sustainability in Logistics and Supply Chain Management	265
17. Emerging Supply Chain Designs	280
Part Five Case Studies	290
Why Supply Chains Should Be Involved in Product Design	290
Oman: One of the World’s Next Great Logistics Hubs?	293
Glossary	G-1
Index	I-1