

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	ix
Acknowledgements	x
Introduction: Reading Shakespeare through anthropology	1
PART I
Shakespeare's world	9
1 To see and not to see: Hamlet's undiscovered country	11
2 Shakespeare, in theory	45
3 Revolutions	63
PART II
Four plays	87
4 The long way home: The Winter's Tale and the triumph of time	89
5 And the flesh was made word: Romeo and Juliet in the kingdom of Cratylus	131
6 Just for play: Unmasking A Midsummer Night's Dream	161

viii Contents

- 7 The body politic, the body poetic: Julius Caesar and legacy of
“The King’s Two Bodies” 183

PART III

Shakespeare’s craft 215

- 8 Just nothing: How King Lear means 217

- 9 Shakespeare and theory in perspective 232

Bibliography 261

Index 272